Five little ducks were swimming one day.
Quack the quack and the quack,

The Story Of The Little Duck:

The Story of the Little Duck William Michael Wochna, 2014-09-27 A DELIGHTFUL OLD FASHIONED TALE A brave little duck saves her flock from the ravages of a fierce wolf with the help of a philosophical old owl who quotes Dickens and teaches her something about the cycle of life Here s an excerpt without the full color pictures of course which can t be put into this description The little duck climbed out of the pond The moon had just risen above the trees and it was casting shadows like long grasping claws across the meadow She fluffed her feathers and wiggled her tail to give herself courage Then she waddled slowly through the meadow to the big pine tree standing on the edge of the forest She could see the owl s huge orange eyes glowing high up in the tree Mr Owl sir Every morning when we waddle out into the meadow to eat the big crunchy grasshoppers and the fat juicy slugs the wolf jumps out of the tall grass and carries one of us away into the forest and we never see that duck again Can you tell me how we can stop the wolf from eating ducks The owl peered down at the little duck With his huge orange eyes he could see her quite easily in the dim light Look at yourself little duck Your bottom is too big your legs are too short and you keep tripping over your feet Now think about the wolf He has long legs with strong claws He runs very fast and he has wide jaws with big teeth Don t you know that wolves are supposed to eat ducks just like ducks are supposed to eat grasshoppers and slugs The little duck bobbed her head up and down I know but isn t there anything we can do See the Kindle version for the best preview    The Little Duck Judy Dunn, 2017-01-10 A Step 1 Reader perfect for children who love animals Featuring full color photographs from the legendary Phoebe Dunn this delightful story of a growing little duck and his many fun adventures will waddle its way into the hearts of emerging readers everywhere Step 1 Readers feature big type and easy words for children who know the alphabet and are eager to begin reading Rhyme and rhythmic text paired picture clues help children decode the story    The Story of a Little Duck Dorothy Sherrill, 1935
