We Flew Over The Bridge The Memoirs Of Faith Ringgold:

We Flew over the Bridge Faith Ringgold, 2020-10-22 In We Flew over the Bridge one of the country's preeminent African American artists and award winning children's book authors shares the fascinating story of her life. Faith Ringgold's artworks, startling story quilts, politically charged paintings and more hang in the Studio Museum in Harlem, the Metropolitan Museum of Art, the Guggenheim Museum, the Museum of Modern Art and other major museums around the world as well as in the private collections of Maya Angelou, Bill Cosby and Oprah Winfrey. Her children's books, including the Caldecott Honor Book Tar Beach, have sold hundreds of thousands of copies. But Ringgold's path to success has not been easy. In this gorgeously illustrated memoir, she looks back and shares the story of her struggles, growth and triumphs. Ringgold recollects how she had to surmount a wall of prejudices as she worked to refine her artistic vision and raise a family. At the same time, the story she tells is one of warm family memories and sustaining friendships, community involvement and hope for the future. Faith Ringgold Lisa E. Farrington, Faith Ringgold, 2004 The story of Faith Ringgold, activist, author, academician, is an uplifting look at a progressive artist who overcame discrimination and triumphed as a giant figure in American art. Notable as an accomplished painter, a sculptor, a printmaker and an art quilter, she has never abandoned her goal of searching for human dignity and empowerment for fellow African Americans while tirelessly fighting against discrimination. Faith Ringgold is a captivating look at the personal and professional life of one of the country's most notable female artists. Selected works from several of her famous series are presented, including The Flag Is Bleeding, Help the Slave Rape Series, 11 The Purple Dolt Series, Mother's Quilt and We Came to America. Lisa E. Farrington is a faculty member at Parsons School of Design in New York City, where she teaches art and race and gender issues. A former Mellon Foundation fellow and recipient of numerous academic awards and honors, she is the author of Creating Their Own Image: African American Women Artists (Oxford University Press, 2004) and Art on Fire: The Politics of Race and Sex in the Paintings of Faith Ringgold (Millennium, 1999).

Creating Their Own Image Lisa E. Farrington, 2005 Creating Their Own Image marks the first comprehensive history of African American women artists from slavery to the present day. Using an analysis of stereotypes of Africans and African Americans in western art and culture as a springboard, Lisa E. Farrington here richly details hundreds of important works, many of which deliberately challenge these same identity myths of the carnal Jezebel, the asexual Mammy, the imperious Matriarch. In crafting a portrait of artistic creativity unprecedented in its scope and ambition, in these lavishly illustrated pages, some of which feature images never before published, we learn of the efforts of Elizabeth Keckley, fashion designer to Mary Todd Lincoln; the acclaimed sculptor Edmonia Lewis, internationally renowned for her neoclassical works in marble; and the artist Nancy Elizabeth Prophet and her innovative teaching techniques. We meet Laura Wheeler Waring, who portrayed women of color as members of a socially elite class, in stark contrast to the prevalent images of compliant maids, impoverished malcontents and exotics others that proliferated in the interwar period. We read of the painter Barbara Jones-Hogu's collaboration on the famed Wall of Respect even as we view a rare photograph of Hogu in the process of painting the mural Farrington expertly guides us through the fertile period of the Harlem Renaissance and the New Negro Movement which produced an entirely new crop of artists who consciously imbued their work with a social and political agenda and through the tumultuous explosive years of the civil rights movement Drawing on revealing interviews with numerous contemporary artists such as Betye Saar Faith Ringgold Nanette Carter Camille Billops Xenobia Bailey and many others the second half of Creating Their Own Image probes more recent stylistic developments such as abstraction conceptualism and post modernism never losing sight of the struggles and challenges that have consistently influenced this body of work Weaving together an expansive collection of artists styles and periods Farrington argues that for centuries African American women artists have created an alternative vision of how women of color can are and might be represented in American culture From utilitarian objects such as quilts and baskets to a wide array of fine arts Creating Their Own Image serves up compelling evidence of the fundamental human need to convey one's life one's emotions one's experiences on a canvas of one's own making Dancing at the Louvre Faith Ringgold, 1998 Contemporary artist Faith Ringgold has adapted the tradition of the American slave quilt to create a world in which African Americans and women dominate where history is not only questioned but reinvented 102 illustrations 40 in color
