Welcome To The Desert Of Post Socialism Radical Politics After Yugoslavia:

Welcome to the Desert of Post-Socialism Srečko Horvat, Igor Štiks, 2015-01-06 This volume offers a profound analysis of post socialist economic and political transformation in the Balkans involving deeply unequal societies and oligarchical democracies The contributions deconstruct the persistent imaginary of the Balkans pervasive among outsiders to the region who see it as no more than a repository of ethnic conflict corruption and violence Providing a much needed critical examination of the Yugoslav socialist experience the volume sheds light on the recent rebirth of radical politics in the Balkans where new groups and movements struggle for a radically democratic vision of society Time, Globalization and Human Experience Paul Huebener, Susie O'Brien, Tony Porter, Liam Stockdale, Yanqiu Rachel Zhou, 2016-11-03 This edited volume focuses on the intersection of time and globalization as manifested across a variety of economic political cultural and environmental contexts Since David Harvey's influential characterization of globalization as time space compression ample research has looked at the spatial aspect of the phenomenon yet few have focused on globalization's temporal aspects Meanwhile other publications have analysed problems of speed acceleration and the commodification of time but while it often serves as the implicit or explicit backdrop for these studies of time globalization is not investigated as a problem or a question in its own right In response this volume develops these conversations to consider how time shapes globalization and how globalization affects our experience of time The interplay between varying aspects of the human experiences of time and globalization requires the type of interdisciplinary approach that this volume takes The contributors advance an understanding of global time's as an arena of contestation with social political ecological and cultural implications for human and other lives In considering the diverse valences of time and globalization they illuminate problems as well as possibilities Topics covered include emerging infectious diseases temporal sovereignty worker exploitation and resistance chronobiology energy politics activism and hope and literary and cinematic representations of counter temporalities offering a rich and varied account of global times This volume will be of great interest to students and researchers from a range of disciplines including anthropology cultural studies globalization international relations literary studies political science social theory and sociology Yugoslavia and China Anastas Vangeli, Dragan Pavličević, 2025-10-08 This book explores the historical relationship between Yugoslavia and China examining its features significance and reverberations today Studying a wide array of state to state and society to society connections and interactions it provides novel perspectives on Yugoslavia's and China's intertwined trajectories and relations Drawing from a rich array of primary sources and multidisciplinary approaches the contributors shed light on the key events major developments and important aspects of the Sino Yugoslav relationship and analyse contemporary relations between China and the Yugoslav successor states The volume offers a timely intervention in the global history of the Cold War area studies of Southeast Europe and of China and studies of socialist and post socialist transformations Conclusion of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis>

Rada Ivekovic, 2022-01-20 This book examines the antagonistic relationship between new European nationalisms as these often go hand in hand with populism and the phenomenon of migration Migration has become a significant issue both in Europe and the whole world Although it has always existed much of public opinion sees it now as a problem The latter has been exaggerated through a crisis in hospitality exacerbated by the relatively recently constructed and misplaced feeling of a civilisational threat from islam Migration is then countered by the escalation of new nationalisms at least some of which are supported by populism This book offers an understanding of this conjunction of migration and nationalism in the post cold war European context More specifically the book takes up how the end of the simplified cold war cognitive binary means an unprecedented epistemological confusion and depoliticisation which takes migration as its target but could resort to other targets too Discussing the postcolonial background to the new migrations the book also considers womens rights postsocialism and the relevance of the current pandemic as the issue of migration is addressed in the context of the European crisis ridden present This wide ranging interrogation of how contemporary European migration is conceived and understood will appeal to students academics activists policy makers and others with interests in contemporary migration new nationalisms populism feminism colonial postcolonial and decolonial issues as well as socialism and postsocialism

Social Mobilization Beyond Ethnicity Chiara Milan, 2019-11-20 This book offers an in depth investigation of the emergence and spread of social mobilizations that transcend ethnicity in societies violently divided along ethno national lines Using Bosnia Herzegovina as a case study the book explores episodes of mobilization which have superseded ethno nationalist cleavages Bosnia Herzegovina emerged from the 1992 95 war brutally impoverished and deeply ethnically divided representing a critical and strategic case for the examination and understanding of the dynamics of mobilization in such divided societies Despite difficult circumstances for civic based collective action social mobilizations in the country have grown in size number and intensity in recent years Marked by citizen demand for accountable governance responsive urbanism and access to basic human rights these protests have been driven by economic social and political problems which cut across religious and ethnic divides Examining the variation in spatial and social scale of contention the book investigates movements formation their organizational structures and networking strategies and advances research on divided societies and social movements This volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of Southeastern Europe and those examining political dissent social movements and mobilization in divided societies as well as practitioners in civil society grassroots groups and political activists

Reanimating Regions James Riding, Martin Jones, 2017-05-12 Writing regions undertaking a regional study was once a standard form of geographic communication and critique This was until the quantitative revolution in the middle of the previous century and more definitively the critical turn in human geography towards the end of the twentieth century From then on writing regions as they were experienced phenomenologically or arguing culturally historically and politically with regions was deemed to be old fashioned Yet the region is and always will be a central geographical concept and thinking about regions can tell us a lot about the history of the discipline called geography Despite taking up an identifiable place within the geographical imagination in scholarship and beyond region remains a relatively forgotten under used and in part under theorised term Reanimating Regions marks the continued reinvigoration of a set of disciplinary debates surrounding regions the regional and regional geography Across 18 chapters from international interdisciplinary scholars this book writes and performs region as a temporary permanence something held stable not fixed and absolute at different points in time for different purposes There is as this expansive volume outlines no single reading of a region Reanimating Regions collectively rebalances the region within geography and geographical thought In renewing the geography of regions as not only a site of investigation but also as an analytical framework through which to write the world what emerges is a powerful reworking of the geographic imagination Read against one another the chapters weave together timely commentaries on region and regions across the globe with a particular emphasis upon the regional as played out in the United Kingdom and regional worlds both within and beyond Europe offering chapters from Africa and South America Addressing both the political and the cultural this volume responds to the need for a consolidated and considered reflection on region the regional and regional geography speaking directly to broader intellectual concerns with performance aesthetics identity mobilities the environment and the body

Mixing and Unmixing Languages Amelia Abercrombie, 2020-07-16 Mixing and Unmixing Languages uses the politics and practices of language to understand social hierarchies and social change in a post conflict and post socialist context The book focuses on Roma in Prizren Kosovo where the author conducted long term ethnographic fieldwork using language learning as a central method Shifts in language practices among this highly multilingual group have reflected the demise of Yugoslav socialism the rise of ethno nationalist politics and conflict and the post war reversal of power relations in Kosovo Roma in Prizren nostalgically narrate a past of cosmopolitanism and employment in contrast to the present Their position today is complex while they stress their relative integration this position is fragile in the face of nationalist politics and imported neoliberal economic policies Within this context Roma NGO workers have found an economic niche working on projects to protect multiculturalism and minorities funded by international aid agencies centred on Romani language This book discusses the historical trajectory and current configurations of a Romani organisation in the town the standardisation of Romani and the hierarchical organisation of linguistic forms and language learning the self representation of Roma and the gypsy image through Romani language drama and attitudes to purism mixing and cosmopolitanism Mixing and Unmixing Languages is suitable for academics and students in the areas of linguistic anthropology and linguistic ethnography Romani studies South East European studies and sociolinguistics

Canada In The World Tyler A. Shipley, 2020-07-25T00:00:00Z An accessible and empirically rich introduction to Canada s engagements in the world since confederation this book charts a unique path by locating Canada s colonial foundations at the heart of the analysis Canada in the World begins by arguing that the colonial relations with Indigenous peoples represent the first example of foreign policy and demonstrates how these relations became a foundational and existential element of the new state Colonialism the project to establish settler capitalism in North America and the ideological assumption that Europeans were more advanced and thus deserved to conquer the Indigenous people says Shipley lives at the very heart of Canada Through a close examination of Canadian foreign policy from crushing an Indigenous rebellion in El Salvador peacekeeping missions in the Congo and Somalia and Cold War interventions in Vietnam and Indonesia to Canadian participation in the War on Terror Canada in the World finds that this colonial heart has dictated Canada s actions in the world since the beginning Highlighting the continuities across more than 150 years of history Shipley demonstrates that Canadian policy and behaviour in the world is deep rooted and argues that changing this requires rethinking the fundamental nature of Canada itself

Don't Mourn, Balkanize! Andrej Grubačić, 2010-11-15 Don t Mourn Balkanize is the first book written from the radical left perspective on the topic of Yugoslav space after the dismantling of the country In this collection of essays commentaries and interviews written between 2002 and 2010 Andrej Gruba i speaks about the politics of balkanization about the trial of Slobodan Milosevic the assassination of Prime Minister Zoran Djindjic neoliberal structural adjustment humanitarian intervention supervised independence of Kosovo occupation of Bosnia and other episodes of Power which he situates in the long historical context of colonialism conquest and intervention But he also tells the story of the balkanization of politics of the Balkans seen from below A space of bogumils those medieval heretics who fought against Crusades and churches and a place of anti Ottoman resistance a home to hajduks and klefti pirates and rebels a refuge of feminists and socialists of antifascists and partisans of new social movements of occupied and recovered factories a place of dreamers of all sorts struggling both against provincial peninsularity as well as against occupations foreign interventions and that process which is now in a strange inversion of history often described by that fashionable term balkanization For Gruba i political activist and radical sociologist Yugoslavia was never just a country it was an idea Like the Balkans itself it was a project of inter ethnic co existence a trans ethnic and pluricultural space of many diverse worlds Political ideas of inter ethnic cooperation and mutual aid as we had known them in Yugoslavia were destroyed by the beginning of the 1990s disappeared in the combined madness of ethno nationalist hysteria and humanitarian imperialism This remarkable collection chronicles political experiences of the author who is himself a Yugoslav a man without a country but also as an anarchist a man without a state This book is an important reading for those on the Left who are struggling to understand the intertwined legacy of inter ethnic conflict and inter ethnic solidarity in contemporary post Yugoslav history Partisan Ruptures Gal Kirn,2019-12-20 Yugoslavia s twentieth century bore witness to civil war sharp ideological struggles and a series of partisan ruptures revolutionary events that changed the face of Yugoslavian society politics and culture which were felt on a global level This book is a comprehensive historical and political analysis of the three major ruptures the People s Liberation Struggle during World War Two the self management model and the Non Aligned Movement In order to understand what provoked and what came out of these revolutionary ruptures Gal Kirn examines the implications of communism and socialism s productive relationship the Yugoslavian experiment of market socialism that marked the political and economic shift towards post socialism already in the 1960s which crystallised new class coalitions that will later on together with austerity politics lead the way towards des integration of Yugoslavia Filling a much needed gap in English language literature this book s interrogation of the Yugoslav socialist experiment offers insights for left projects and democratic socialist discussions today as well as historians of Yugoslavia and revolutionary movements I Am Jugoslovenka! Jasmina Tumbas,2022-01-25 Coining the term Jugoslovenka to designate the unique history of Yugoslav women s resistance to patriarchy during and after socialism this book shows how Yugoslavia s anti fascist transnational and feminist legacies manifest in performance conceptual video and activist works

A Politics of Sorrow Davorka Ljubisic, 2004 There is no greater sorrow on earth than the loss of one's native land
Euripides The Last Yugoslav Generation Ljubica Spaskovska, 2017 Nations and Citizens in Yugoslavia and the Post-Yugoslav States Igor Tiks, 2015 Between 1914 and the present day the political makeup of the Balkans has relentlessly changed following unpredictable shifts of international and internal borders Between and across these borders various political communities were formed co-existed and dis-integrated By analysing one hundred years of modern citizenship in Yugoslavia and post-Yugoslav states Igor Tiks shows that the concept and practice of citizenship is necessary to understand how political communities are made un-made and re-made He argues that modern citizenship is a tool that can be used for different and opposing goals from integration and re-unification to fragmentation and ethnic engineering The study of citizenship in the laboratory of the Balkans offers not only an original angle to narrate an alternative political history but also an insight into the fine mechanics and repeating glitches of modern politics applicable to multinational states in the European Union and beyond Race and the Yugoslav Region Catherine Baker, 2018 Describes the territories and collective identities of former Yugoslavia within the politics of race not just ethnicity and the history of how ideas of racialised difference have been translated globally Yugoslavia After Tito Andrew Borowiec, 1977 Open Borders, Nonalignment, and the Political Evolution of Yugoslavia William Zimmerman, 1987 Zimmerman asks What difference does it make for Yugoslavia's political evolution that it exists in an international environment as well as a domestic one Presenting a lucid analysis of the mutual influence of external and internal factors in Yugoslav politics he pays special attention to the political significance of the one million Yugoslavs who have crossed the country's borders to work in capitalist Western Europe Originally published in 1987 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These paperback editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905
