Where the Wind Begins Audrey Van Troost, 2004 Where the Winds Begin Alvin E. Laurant, In the quiet coastal town of Miagao where the sea hums softly against the shore and the winds carry the scent of salt and sun two boys grow up learning that some bonds are meant to last a lifetime Ely the artist who sketches horizons he cannot reach dreams of worlds beyond their small town Kaloy the scholar whose gentleness hides a restless soul finds comfort in Ely's laughter and the silent promise between them Together they chase waves share secrets and learn that love can exist even before it has a name Years pass From the tree lined paths of UP Visayas to the radiant shores near Boracay their lives drift apart shaped by ambition fear and the quiet ache of things left unsaid Yet destiny like the wind circles back When Ely and Kaloy meet again by the same sea that once witnessed their youth they must face what was lost and what still lingers Set against the breathtaking landscapes of Western Visayas Where the Winds Begin is a tender coming of age novel about friendship identity and the courage to embrace one's truth It is a story of first love and second chances of leaving only to return and of how love like the wind never truly ends It only changes direction carrying with it the memories of where it began *The Works of Aristotle Translated Into English Under the Editorship of W.
