When a Congregation Is Betrayed Candace R. Benyei, E. Lorraine Frampton, Nancy Myer Hopkins, Patricia L. Liberty, Deborah J. Pope-Lance, 2005-12-30 This ebook is now available from Bloomsbury Academic Bloomsbury Academic publish acclaimed resources for undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as the general reader across a broad range of subjects including Archaeology Art Visual Culture Biblical Studies Business Management Drama Performance Studies Economics Education Film Media History Linguistics Literary Studies Music Sound Studies Philosophy Politics International Relations Psychology Religious Studies Social Work Social Welfare Sociology Study Skills Theology and Wellbeing Health Lifestyle Visit bloomsbury.com for more information Tragedies and Christian Congregations Christopher Southgate, Carla Grosch-Miller, Hilary Ison, Megan Warner, 2019-09-26 When tragedy strikes a community it is often unexpected with long lasting effects on the people left in its wake. Too often there aren't adequate systems in place to aid those affected in processing what has happened. This study uniquely combines practical theology, pastoral insight, and scientific data to demonstrate how Christian congregations can be helped to be resilient in the face of sudden, devastating events. Beginning by identifying the characteristics of trauma in individuals and communities, this collection of essays from practitioners and academics locates sudden trauma inducing tragedies as a problem in practical theology. A range of biblical and theological responses are presented, but contemporary scientific understanding is also included in order to challenge and stretch some of these traditional theological resources. The pastoral section of the book examines the ethics of response to tragedy, locating the role of the minister in relation to other helping agencies and exploring the all too topical issue of ministerial abuse. Developing a nuanced rationale for good practical pastoral liturgical and theological responses to major traumas, this book will be of significant value to scholars of practical theology as well as practitioners counselling in and around church congregations.

Breaking the Silence Within the Church Judy R. De Wit, 2010-12-27 Where does abuse come from? Is an interesting question that has a difficult answer. However, what this book offers may be the beginning point of finding the answer to that question. This book starts by helping you understand and identify what approach your parents used with you when you were a child. As you make that determination, you will begin to understand how you became you and why you do the things you do Whether your parents approach was strict and harsh or was chaotic and slack determining where your parents were on a continuum will help you understand how you became you This book explains how certain parenting styles are likely to produce certain traits and characteristics you have as an adult If Dad or Moms style of parenting was strict and harsh you are likely to be a perfectionist suffer from anxiety and have OCD issues Its possible you were emotionally and physically abused by them If your parents had a chaotic style to parenting its likely you face identity issues and have a difficult time living a structured life Sexual abuse may have been a part of your growing up years Along with this this book shares how to understand leadership in the church using the same continuum When church leaders use a harsh and strict way to lead the church legalism will dominate When church leaders are promiscuous and slack in their approach chaos in the church reigns For both parenting styles and church leadership styles being in the middle of the continuum flexible are where families and churches function best This book provides a step by step process for councils and elders boards should they be faced with having to respond to abuse allegations by a church leader When councils and elder boards are faced with uncertainty about how to proceed this book shows how to respond to the complainant the accused their families and the entire congregation if such a thing did happen Determining truth establishing evidence investigating allegations and make determinations of what to do are explained in this book Christs mandate for His Church is about bringing healing and restoration to His broken world The church is never to be an agent of harm or abuse As leaders filling that mandate is critical and crucial in obedience to Him This includes addressing and responding to abuse when it happens in your faith community Abuse in the church is real Abuse in our families is real No matter what denomination or affiliation you belong to abuse is happening Your church is no exception So church leaders what are you going to do when allegations of abuse by one of your church leaders comes to your council table Your journey about what God wants you to do in your response may begin by whats found in this book Judy R De Wit Facing Feelings in Faith Communities William M. Kondrath,2013-08-05 Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise We have emotions because we need them God created us as affectively competent beings William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing When we express our feelings clearly other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us our emotional software was infected early on with viruses early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity Fortunately we can reprogram our emotional software Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings fear anger sadness peace power and joy through poetry meditation on an evocative drawing as well as through his own analysis of each feeling Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book For more information click here

Transitional Ministry Molly Dale Smith,2009-06 Transition is the word we use to describe the time following significant change In congregations that change might be the departure of the pastor a catastrophe such as Hurricane Katrina or 9 11 or simply the changes caused by growth Transition calls for clergy with special training to respond to the needs generated by the special time Task training and time limit are the hallmarks of transitional ministry Trained intentional interim clergy must have the skill and experience to lead congregations during transition However transitional or interim ministry has a bad reputation in some places As one diocesan leader said We have never had a church in this diocese that was so bad off that an interim was needed Indeed there are some sick churches but most congregations have some good things happening and some things that need attention Intentional interim ministry can be medicine for the sick but in most cases it is better compared to vitamins that are taken to promote health This book seeks to clear up misconceptions about transitional ministry and present an accurate and up to date picture of transitional ministry and to describe the various settings in which this specialized ministry can be helpful Chapter authors all expert in transitional ministry in mainline Protestant denominations include Robert Friedrich John Keydel George Martin Loren Mead Barry Miller Nancy Miller Ineke Mitchell Ken Ornell Molly Dale Smith and Rob Voyle

Methodist Morals Darryl W. Stephens,2024-01-12 Methodist Morals offers keen insight into the public church interpreting the United Methodist Social Principles as a dynamic discourse about morality and human rights in light of faith Revised every four years by the General Conference of the United Methodist Church the Social Principles exposes the moral deliberations of this distinctly American and increasingly worldwide church as it struggles to achieve community across multiple languages and cultures Perhaps no other document provides as rich a depiction of Protestants participating in the moral argument of public life This is the first full length study of Methodist social teachings in over fifty years Examining official Methodist teachings from institutional historical and cross cultural perspectives Darryl Stephens provides a rich analysis of this case study of Protestant social witness drawing on his expertise in church polity Methodist history and Christian social ethics A wide range of comparisons with documents of the United Nations with moral debate in Germany and Zimbabwe and with historical Methodist statements of social witness shows the Social Principles to be a unique form of social witness The issues of war abortion human sexuality and marriage illustrate the messiness of democratic deliberation in an ecclesial context and the evolution of a people ever concerned with the sin of worldliness even as they become more attuned to transforming social structures Stephens also contrasts this conception of the public church with the ecclesiologies of prominent Methodist ethicists Stanley Hauerwas and Paul Ramsey Intended for students of Methodism ecumenical church leaders and scholars of Christian social ethics and contemporary US mainline religion this work reveals the challenges to and possibilities for achieving moral community in an increasingly global and diverse world
