No Hard Feelings Genevieve Novak, 2022-04-01

Hungover underpaid and overwhelmed this isn't where Penny expected to be as she reached her late twenties. A sharp smart and witty look at adulting. Fleabag meets Sorrow and Bliss with a splash of Dolly Alderton. No Hard Feelings is clever, funny and surprisingly sweet and Penny captured my heart. Toni Jordan. I exist on validation from emotionally unavailable men, biscuits and cheap wine and it's easier to get off with Max than a Tiny Teddy. Penny can't help but compare herself to her friends. Annie is about to become a senior associate at her law firm. Bec has just got engaged. Leo is dating everyone this side of the Yarra and Penny is just waiting. Waiting for Max, her on again off again boyfriend to allow her to spend the night waiting for the promotion she was promised, waiting for her Valium to kick in. Waiting for her real life to start. Out of excuses and sick of falling behind, Penny is determined to turn things around. She's going to make it work with Max, impress her tyrannical boss, quit seeing her useless therapist, remember to water her plants and stop having panic attacks in the work toilets. But soon she's back to doomscrolling on Instagram, necking bottles of Aldi's finest sauvignon blanc and criticising herself with renewed vigour and loathing. As her goals seem further away than ever, she has to wonder when bad habits feel so good. How do you trust what's right for you? Praise for No Hard Feelings. Genevieve Novak will inevitably be compared to other authors but the truth is she is herself and herself alone and that's a good thing. Funny, biting, vulnerable and unflinching. Novak's novel is like an ocean dip, a bit salty, very refreshing. Lauren Sams. Scaldingly funny and biting, real. No Hard Feelings deserves a warning label: danger, may induce binge reading. With her sly wit, Genevieve Novak's debut demonstrates a brilliant eye for observing the little things in life which together can be the biggest things of all. Tori Haschka, author of Grace Under Pressure. No Hard Feelings is a gratifying warm and funny debut. Books Publishing. Novak has perfectly captured the self-doubt and total horror of having to be happy and functional in your twenties. It would have you crying into your chipped manicure if it wasn't so darn funny. Kimberley Allsopp, author of Love and Other Puzzles.

TikTok as Entertainment or Misleading App? John Maish, 2023-09-20. Essay from the year 2021 in the subject Communications. Mass Media grade 3.0. University of California San Diego course Media Studies. Language English. Abstract: This essay critically analyzes the popular video sharing app TikTok and questions whether it should be perceived primarily as an entertainment platform or as a source of misleading content. The author reflects on how TikTok's algorithmically customized feed and divination videos promoted addictive viewing habits and dubious life advice in a friend. However, the app also spreads joy through funny videos. The essay concludes that while TikTok has merit as an entertainment app, users should be cautious of videos that try to deceptively influence major life decisions. Overall, the essay urges readers to approach TikTok with nuance.
