Deceptions and Doublecross Morey Holzman, Joseph Nieforth, 2002-10-01 Hockey lovers will be fascinated by the truth about how the National Hockey League was founded and how through less than savory means it captured permanent possession of the Stanley Cup. Deceptions and Doublecross begins with the 1917 conspiracy among a Montreal contingent of the National Hockey Association to oust Toronto owner Edward James Livingstone from the league. The result was the transformation of the NHA into the NHL with Frank Calder as president leaving Livingstone out in the cold. Under Calder's iron fisted direction the NHL became the only major hockey league in North America and gained exclusive claim to the Stanley Cup.

Hockey Talk M. Gordon Hunter, 2017-12-13 This is another book about hockey. But this one is unique. It contains many stories by and about individuals who broadcast play by play of major junior and provincial junior A games from arenas across Canada. There are even a few chapters about broadcasters from teams in the United States that play in Canadian leagues. There are major junior chapters from the Western Hockey League (WHL), the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) and the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL). Chapters from provincial junior A leagues include British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Ontario and the Maritimes. Some of the contributors for this book wrote their own chapters. Others preferred to be interviewed. In all cases the final version of each chapter was approved by the contributor. The chapters include many descriptions of broadcasters' experiences. They describe their early experiences with hockey. Some played while others listened on the radio, watched on TV or attended games. The stories include how they became involved as play by play broadcasters and who were direct or indirect mentors. Each broadcaster recounts their memories of the first game they called. They also describe some of the notable players, coaches and color commentators. Where possible there are even some bus stories. Each chapter concludes with a comment about what the experience of broadcasting play by play has meant to each individual.
