Secondary School Literacy Leslie S. Rush, A.

Jonathan Eakle, Allen Berger, 2007 This collection is an authoritative resource that draws on the knowledge and expertise of outstanding scholars and provides crucial information about research theory and practice related to secondary school literacy. Leading scholars along with newer researchers in literacy education address topics such as the impact of state and federal mandates on literacy instruction in secondary classrooms, English language learners and online reading comprehension. Chapter authors include Richard L. Allington, Donna E. Alvermann, Kathleen A. Hinchman, Robert T. Jimenez, Kevin M. Leander, Alfred W. Tatum, and Robert J. Tierney among others. Each chapter contains rich discussions of current research as well as practical classroom applications. As one reviewer noted, Each and every chapter is well documented and presents clearly established implications for teaching tied to the latest research findings. One of the major strengths of this edited volume lies in the way it points to a remarkable consistency across research findings representing a broad spectrum of disciplinary arenas. This volume is a welcome addition for any teacher, administrator, or district looking to implement sound research-based classroom practice and professional development.

Strategies that Work Stephanie Harvey, Anne Goudvis, 2023 Since the first publication of Strategies That Work, numerous new books on reading comprehension have been published and more educators than ever are teaching comprehension. In this third edition of their groundbreaking book, authors Stephanie Harvey and Anne Goudvis bring you Strategies That Work: Teaching Comprehension for Understanding, Engagement, and Building Knowledge. This new edition is organized around three sections: Part I, Starting with the Foundation of Meaning; these chapters provide readers with a solid introduction to reading comprehension instruction, including principles that guide practice, suggestions for text selection, and a review of recent research. Part II contains lessons to put these principles into practice for all areas of reading comprehension. Part III shows you how to integrate comprehension instruction across the curriculum and the school day with a focus on science and social studies. In addition, this new version includes updated bibliographies, including the popular Great Books for Teaching, content online resources, and fully revised chapters focusing on digital reading strategies for integrating comprehension and technology and comprehension across the curriculum. Harvey and Goudvis tackle close reading, close listening, text complexity, and critical thinking and demonstrate how your students can build knowledge through thinking-intensive reading and learning. This third edition is a must-have resource for a generation of new teachers and a welcome refresher for those with dog-eared copies of this timeless guide to reading comprehension.
