Constitutionalism in Asia Wen-Chen Chang, Kelley Loper, Mara Malagodi, Ruth Rubio-Marín, 2023-12-28 This book analyses the equal citizenship claims of women and sexual and gender diverse people across several Asian jurisdictions The volume examines the rich diversity of constitutional responses to sex gender and sexuality in the region from a comparative perspective Leading comparative constitutional law scholars identify opportunity structures to explain the uneven advancement of gender equality through constitutional litigation and consider a combination of variables which shape the diverging trajectories of the jurisdictions in this study The authors also embed the relevant constitutional and legal developments in their historical political and social contexts This deep contextual understanding of the relationship between sex gender sexuality and constitutionalism greatly enriches the analysis The case studies reflect a variety of constitutional structures institutional designs and contextual dynamics which may advance or impede developments with respect to sex gender and sexuality As a whole the chapters further an understanding of the constitutional domain as a fruitful site for advancing gender equality and the rights of sexual and gender diverse people The jurisdictions covered represent all Asian sub regions including East Asia Japan Taiwan Hong Kong and South Korea South East Asia Malaysia Singapore Philippines and Indonesia and South Asia India Nepal Pakistan and Sri Lanka The introductory framework chapter situates these insights from the region within the broader global context of the evolution of gender constitutionalism Immigration in

Singapore Vasu, Wen Ling Chan, Su Yin Yeap, 2025-10-01 This study traces the socio political effects of immigration on Singapore and its population a topic that has been the subject of intense debate in the nation as its population grows increasingly diverse Beyond the logic of economic imperatives the book aims to explore the larger consequences of taking in large number of immigrants and its analysis should appeal to scholars of migration social change and public policy

Gender, Emotions and Labour Markets - Asian and Western Perspectives Ann Brooks, Theresa Devasahayam, 2010-12-14 The concept of emotional labour has largely emerged from the analysis of organizations in the West However little has been written about the issue of what defines emotional labour and how it is configured in different cultural contexts This book addresses this gap in the literature and considers how and in what ways emotional labour characterises formal and informal work environments in Southeast Asia Social Difference and Constitutionalism in

Pan-Asia Susan H. Williams, 2014-02-10 This book addresses the role of constitutions and constitutionalism in dealing with the challenges of social difference such as religion or race and ethnicity The book brings together lawyers political scientists historians religious studies scholars and area studies experts to consider how constitutions address issues of difference across Pan Asia Women in Asia Louise Edwards, Mina Roces, 2020-07-25 Women in Asia Tradition Modernity and

Globalisation surveys the transformation in the status of women since 1970 in a diverse range of nations Malaysia China Indonesia Singapore the Philippines India Taiwan Vietnam Hong Kong Korea Japan and Burma Within these 13 national case studies the book presents new arguments about being women being Asian and being modern in contemporary Asia Recent social changes in women s place in society are untangled in recognition that not all change is progress and that not all modernity enhances women s status The authors suggest that the improvements in women s status within the Asian region vary dramatically according to the manner in which women interact with the particular economic and ideological forces in each nation Each contributor has focussed on a particular country in their area of expertise They present innovative arguments relating to the problem of being women in Asia during a period of dramatic social and political changes Each national case study explores key social and economic markers of women s status such as employment rates wage differentials literacy rates and participation in politics or business The effects of population control programs legislation on domestic violence and female infanticide and women s role in the family and the workforce are also discussed The book poses questions as to how women have negotiated these shifts and in the process created a modern Asian woman Specialists from a variety of disciplines including history anthropology sociology demography gender studies and psychology grapple with the complexities and ambivalences presented by the multiple faces of the modern Asian woman Complete with a list of recommended readings and a web site with links to electronic resources the book will be of particular interest to undergraduate students of Asian studies and women s studies as well as scholars and postgraduate students interested in comparative women s studies

Women in Asia Louise P. Edwards, Mina Roces, 2009 Volume III Health and Sexuality brings together the best and most influential scholarship on contentious themes such as the increasing imbalance in sex ratios in the region as a result of female infanticide sex selective abortions and the kidnapping of wives Research gathered in this volume also covers reproductive health violence against women e g female genital mutilation dowry burnings and honour killings same sex attraction and diverse gender identity and medicine and health care including work on traditional medicine and mental health problems specific to women in the region such as the high suicide rates in China and South Asia The material collected in Volume IV Constructions of the Feminine focuses on women in the family e g gendered role expectations women in religion Western perceptions of Asian women e g stereotypes of passivity women in the arts and official discourses on the feminine such as the promotion by Asian governments of gender roles Women in Asia is fully indexed and each of the four volumes has a comprehensive introduction newly written by the editors which provides extended reading lists and places the material in its historical and intellectual context It is an essential work of reference and is destined to be valued by scholars and students as well as policy makers and community activists as a vital one stop research resource
