Singapore Jin Seng Cheah, 2006 Presenting for the first time through the illustrations of 500 postcards from the author's private collection this book offers a rare and comprehensive glimpse into the changing landscapes and lifestyles of Singapore's past right up to the Second World War. Malaya Jin Seng Cheah, 2008 Based on a selection from the author's private collection Malaya 500 Early Postcards offers a rare and comprehensive glimpse into the changing landscapes, townscapes and lifestyles of Malaya from the late 19th century to 1963 when it was renamed Malaysia.

Singapore, 2006 The French in Singapore Maxime Pilon, Danièle Weiler, 2011 In 1819 when Sir Stamford Raffles founded Singapore he was accompanied by two French naturalists. Ever since French missionaries, merchants, planters and other pioneers have contributed to its economic, educational and cultural development. Discover the colourful stories of personalities such as J. Casteleyns who built the first hostelry the Hotel de l'Europe in 1857; Father Jean Marie Beurel who constructed the Cathedral of the Good Shepherd; and Alfred Cloutier who started the well-known Ayam Brand canned sardines business. Superbly illustrated with photographs, paintings, sketches, old documents and maps, The French in Singapore is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to discover the little-known history of the French in the Singapore we know today.

Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin, 2017-12-18 Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects. It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well. Along with Malays and related groups, the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population. The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English. There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others, Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians, mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese, but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology, an introduction, appendixes, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 500 cross-referenced entries on important personalities, politics, economy, foreign relations, religion, and culture. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia.

The Site of the Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus in Singapore Sandra Hudd, 2016-06-17 The Site of the Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus in Singapore Entwined Histories of a Colonial Convent and a Nation 1854-2015 explores key issues and developments in colonial and postcolonial Singapore by examining one particular site in central Singapore, the former Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus established in 1854 and now a food and entertainment complex. The Convent was an early provider of social services and girls' education, almost a mini city within walls including a thriving community of schools, an orphanage and a women's refuge. World War II and the Japanese occupation followed by the creation of the new Republic of Singapore presented a new set of challenges but it was the convent's size and prime location that made it attractive for urban redevelopment in the 1980s and led to government acquisition. Demolition of some buildings and the remainder put out to private tender. The chapel and the former nuns residence are classified as National Monuments but in line with government policy of adaptive re use of heritage sites the complex now contains bars and restaurants and the deconsecrated chapel is used for wedding receptions and events Tracking the physical and usage changes of the site this book works to make sense of that eventful journey a paradoxical journey that moves only in time not in space and includes abandoned babies French nuns Japanese bombings and twenty first century dance parties In a society that has undergone massive change economically and socially and above all transitioned from a small colonial enterprise to a wealthy independent city state those physical changes and differing usages of the Convent site over the years track the changes in the nation The wider ongoing tensions between heritage conservation and the modern global city are explored by examining what has been chosen for preservation the quintessentially Singaporean hybridity of the commercial reuse of historic buildings as well as the nostalgia for what has been lost     Monsoon

Marketplace Elmo Gonzaga,2023-12-05 Provides vivid accounts of commercial and leisure spaces that captivated the public imagination in the past but have since been destroyed forgotten or refurbished Monsoon Marketplace uncovers the entangled vernacular cultures of capitalist modernity mass consumption and media spectatorship in two understudied postcolonial Asian cities across three crucial historical moments Juxtaposing Manila and Singapore it analyzes print and audiovisual representations of popular commercial and leisure spaces during the colonial occupation in the 1930s national development in the 1960s and neoliberal globalization in the 2000s Engaging with the work of creators including Nick Joaquin Kevin Kwan and P Ramlee it discusses figures of female shoppers in 1930s Manila languid expatriates in 1930s Singapore street hawkers in 1960s Singapore youthful activists in 1960s Manila call center agents in 2000s Manila and super rich investors in 2000s Singapore Looking at the historical transformation of Calle Escolta Avenida Rizal Raffles Place and Orchard Road it focuses on Crystal Arcade the Manila Carnival the Great World and New World Amusement Parks and Change Alley all of which had once captivated the public imagination but have since vanished from the cityscape Instead of treating capitalism media and modernity as overarching systems or processes the book examines how their configurations and experiences are contingent variable pluralistic and archipelagic Diverging from critical theories and cultural studies that see consumerism and spectatorship as sources of alienation docility and fantasy it explores how they create new possibilities for agency collectivity and resistance     Penang 500 Early Postcards Jin Seng Cheah,2013-02 By the late 19th century Penang had become a thriving port trading in rubber spices and tin Its prosperity attracted immigrants from around the world and the island was a rich melting pot of Chinese Indians Malays Europeans and many other peoples The postcards reproduced in this book are drawn from the huge collection of Penang born Professor Cheah Jin Seng the author of Singapore 500 Early Postcards Malaya 500 Early Postcards Perak 300 Early Postcards and Selangor 300 Early Postcards This title in the Early Postcards series will present a diverse array of picture postcards of Penang including of its capital George Town now a World Heritage site from the 1890s to the 1970s     Imagining Singapore Charmaine Toh,2023-02-27 Imagining Singapore is the first
