TAMIL TIGRESS NIROMI DE SOYZA,2011-01-01 A story of a child soldier in Sri Lanka s bloody civil war Two days before Christmas in 1987 at the age of 17 Niromi de Soyza found herself in an ambush as part of a small platoon of militant Tamil Tigers fighting government forces in the bloody civil war that was to engulf Sri Lanka for decades With her was her lifelong friend Ajanthi also aged 17 Leaving behind them their shocked middle class families the teenagers had become part of the Tamil Tigers first female contingent Equipped with little more than a rifle and a cyanide capsule Niromi s group managed to survive on their wits in the jungle facing not only the perils of war but starvation illness and growing internal tensions among the militant Tigers And then events erupted in ways that she could no longer bear How was it that this well educated mixed race middle class girl from a respectable family came to be fighting with the Tamil Tigers The Musical

Gift Jim Sykes,2018-08-31 The Musical Gift tells Sri Lanka s music history as a story of giving between humans and nonhumans and between populations defined by difference Author Jim Sykes argues that in the recent past the genres we recognize today as Sri Lanka s esteemed traditional musics were not originally about ethnic or religious identity but were gifts to gods and people intended to foster protection and or healing Noting that the currently assumed link between music and identity helped produce the narratives of ethnic difference that drove Sri Lanka s civil war 1983 2009 Sykes argues that the promotion of connected music histories has a role to play in post war reconciliation The Musical Gift includes a study of how NGOs used music to promote reconciliation in Sri Lanka and it contains a theorization of the relations between musical gifts and commodities Eschewing a binary between the gift and identity Sykes claims the world s music history is largely a story of entanglement between both paradigms Drawing on fieldwork conducted widely across Sri Lanka over a span of eleven years including the first study of Sinhala Buddhist drumming in English and the first ethnography of music making in the former warzones of the north and east this book brings anthropology s canonic literature on the gift into music studies while drawing on anthropology s recent ontological turn and the new materialism in religious studies Pluricentric
