The Papin Sisters Rachel Edwards, Keith Reader, 2001-08-02 The 1933 killing by the Papin sisters of their mistress and her daughter was an act of unexampled violence by women against women whose repercussions have been felt in French culture ever since It received wide journalistic coverage at the time and subsequently prominent literary figures such as Jean Paul Sartre Simone de Beauvoir and Jean Genet have dealt with the case which has also formed the basis of a stage play by Wendy Kesselmann and films by Nico Papatakis Nancy Meckler and Claude Chabrol The case casts fascinating light on French provincial life between the wars the role of women especially unmarried ones in French society and French views of the criminal outsider Its impact on psychoanalytic discourse through the work first of Jacques Lacan then of Francis Dupr and Marie Magdeleine Lessana has also been considerable notably in its contribution to the development of the key notion of the mirror phase The almost obsessive recurrence of the case makes of it a fascinating prism through which to examine multiple aspects of recent French culture

Violette Nozière Sarah C. Maza, 2011 Sarah Maza has written a vivid gripping and clear eyed account of the celebrated Violette Nozi re case which captivated French society in the 1930s A bold and imaginative story Violette Nozi re opens an unexpected and revealing window onto interwar Parisian life Colin Jones author of Paris Biography of a City Sarah Maza s absorbing new book on Violette Nozi re flapper fantasist and perpetrator of one of the most sordid and sensational French homicides of the 1930s is a scholarly true crime tale of the most intelligent sort Why might a seemingly respectable little mademoiselle from a nice bourgeois family want to poison her maman et papa at the breakfast table Alongside her riveting account of the crime and its aftermath Maza investigates the various pathologies familial social economic cultural psychosexual that may have figured in the mayhem At her trial Nozi re claimed among other things that her father had sexually abused her for years The result is both a fascinating case history Greek tragedy rewritten as seedy policier and a chilling glimpse into the less salubrious aspects of French lower middle class life between the wars Terry Castle author of The Professor One of those rare and sophisticated works that tells a gripping story while evoking a complex historical period There exist very few cultural histories of the interwar years Carolyn Dean author of Aversion and Erasure The Fate of the Victim after the Holocaust Sarah Maza's book tells an arresting story that deftly combines conventional social history with a subtle analysis of gender and culture Using all the arts of the best storytellers she is careful not to give too much away and it is only with time and a remarkable conclusion that we realize that Violette Nozière is no ordinary tale Ruth Harris author of Dreyfus Politics Emotion and the Scandal of the Century
