See No Stranger Valarie Kaur, 2020-06-16 An urgent manifesto and a dramatic memoir of awakening this is the story of revolutionary love Finalist for the Dayton Literary Peace Prize In a world stricken with fear and turmoil Valarie Kaur shows us how to summon our deepest wisdom Elizabeth Gilbert author of Eat Pray Love How do we love in a time of rage How do we fix a broken world while not breaking ourselves Valarie Kaur renowned Sikh activist filmmaker and civil rights lawyer describes revolutionary love as the call of our time a radical joyful practice that extends in three directions to others to our opponents and to ourselves It enjoins us to see no stranger but instead look at others and say You are part of me I do not yet know Starting from that place of wonder the world begins to change It is a practice that can transform a relationship a community a culture even a nation Kaur takes readers through her own riveting journey as a brown girl growing up in California farmland finding her place in the world as a young adult galvanized by the murders of Sikhs after 9 11 as a law student fighting injustices in American prisons and on Guant namo Bay as an activist working with communities recovering from xenophobic attacks and as a woman trying to heal from her own experiences with police violence and sexual assault Drawing from the wisdom of sages scientists and activists Kaur reclaims love as an active public and revolutionary force that creates new possibilities for ourselves our communities and our world See No Stranger helps us imagine new ways of being with each other and with ourselves so that together we can begin to build the world we want to see

When Ancestors Weep

James A. Houck Jr. Ph.D., 2018-11-08 We are all beautiful souls made in the image of God full of inherent value dignity and worth Yet we may struggle to accept this truth because our attention is often diverted to focus solely on outward appearances and behaviors In other words we all live with some degree of ignorance of our soul consciousness We may get glimpses of it but we never attain the full extent because physical emotional and psychological issues cloud our vision of who we truly are For example diseases and illnesses do afflict us in the body We do feel physical and emotional pain with so much intensity at times that we believe it is going to break us in two At times our lungs may struggle to take a breath or hunger and diseases cause our stomach intestines bones muscles and blood to scream in agony These experiences might make us question whether or not we are the soul whom God has created However this illusion lies not in the suffering pain and agony we experience but rather it is in the perception that there is nothing more to us than an emotional intellectual and physical body Indeed physical and emotional pain and suffering can temporarily drown out the cry of our soul but our soul is never silenced Furthermore the truth is that the greatest strength of who we are as souls lies in our ability to transform and transcend physical emotional and psychological limitations The greatest effect hearing the cries of our ancestors has on us not only comes from getting in touch with our own soul s voice but also awakens us to hear the cries of those who have no voice today There has always existed in society a pattern of disenfranchising the weak and wounded people who have been labeled as unlovable untouchable and therefore unreachable For some disenfranchisement was due to their disease or illness

For others it was due to their poverty Still for others it was due to their gender race religion politics or social class Many in society preferred such people not to be seen let alone heard from However just as the cries of our ancestors and those who have been the victims of crimes against humanity can never be silenced and so too are the cries of the disenfranchised heard above the din of everyday life Their cries are not only heard deep within the soul but their pain is also given a voice through those who speak for them
