Figures of Speech (Figurative Language)

Figurative language is when writers use words in a creative way to make their writing more interesting, colorful, or to express something that is hard to explain in just plain words. Instead of saying something directly, they use comparisons, descriptions, or exaggerations to make the reader feel or imagine something more deeply.

Example:

- Simile: "Her smile was as bright as the sun." (It doesn't mean her smile is literally the sun, but it shows how happy and warm her smile made others feel.)
- Metaphor: "The classroom was a zoo." (This doesn't mean the classroom had animals in it, but it gives the idea that it was loud and chaotic.)

Figurative language makes writing fun and helps paint a picture in the reader's mind!

Identify the simile in the following sentence: The wind howled through the trees like a wolf calling to its pack.

What two things are being compared? _____

Which sentence contains a metaphor?

- a) The stars sparkled like diamonds.
- b) Time is a thief that steals our moments.
- c) The car zoomed down the street.

What is being personified in this sentence? The old house groaned and creaked under the weight of the snow.

True or False: "My backpack weighs a ton with all my books!" is a hyperbole.

What does the idiom mean? "It's raining cats and dogs outside!"

- a) There are animals falling from the sky.
- b) It's raining very hard.
- c) The weather is perfect for walking pets.
