Sketching A Male Pant Trouser:

Fashion Illustration for Designers Kathryn Hagen, 2017-05-03 Fashion design begins in the designer's creative mind and drawing is the crucial next step to communicating creative ideas to others to bring those ideas to reality. Clear expressive drawings engage and bring together people in patternmaking, production, marketing, and all other facets of the fashion business, ensuring that everyone shares the same vision that originates with the designer. Kathryn Hagen brings decades of experience teaching design students how best to translate their ideas into drawings. She opens with basic drawing skills using both hand tools and computer techniques before moving on to applying those skills to both the human figure and the specifics of various types of clothing. Throughout the book, she exposes designers to myriad techniques and styles, encouraging each individual to discover what works best for him or her. Each chapter ends with practice exercises as well as visual references to review and reinforce material learned in the chapter lessons. Videos demonstrating hands-on examples can be viewed at waveland.com. Hagen, with emphasis on distressed fabrics and novelty treatments, 84 pages of color present a wide variety of rendering techniques.

Feminism and the Body Londa Schiebinger, 2000-06-22 This collection of classic essays in feminist body studies investigates the history of the image of the female body from the medical discovery of the clitoris to the body politic of Queen Elizabeth I to women deprecated as Hottentot Venuses in the nineteenth century. The text looks at the way in which coverings bear cultural meaning: clothing reform during the French Revolution, Islamic veiling, and the invention of the top hat, as well as the embodiment of cherished cultural values in social icons such as the Statue of Liberty or the Barbie doll. By considering culture as it defines not only women but also men, this volume offers both the student and the general reader an insight into the interdisciplinary and cross-cultural study involved in feminist body studies.
