

WESTRIDGE SCHOOL

Convocation 2014 Head of School Welcome Address

Our Core Values

Girls – this morning, and throughout the school year, you are going to hear about, talk about, and reflect on the meaning of integrity, respect, responsibility and inclusion. From interacting with you as you have brought your passion and energy back to school over the past few days, I know that many of you have already started to think about these four guiding principles that we should strive to uphold in all that we do. They are fundamental beliefs that will continue to define us and provide a strong sense of who we are as a community.

Where have these four values of integrity, respect, responsibility and inclusion come from? They have been a part of the fabric of Westridge for many years. They appear in the words we have written about ourselves, and in conversations about who we are and who we aspire to be. They are reflected in decisions we have made and actions that have been taken. They are values that should lift us up and bring us together.

And as we enter our second century and reflect on where we wish to go, the time seems right to reaffirm and recommit to these values that can be at the heart of all that we stand for – our core values.

Collectively, we also need to define what these values mean to us and to consider how they can guide our everyday thoughts and actions, and provide the framework within which we can wrestle with difficult decisions and hold ourselves accountable.

I always try to break things into “memory chunks” and to think of examples or stories to illustrate my thinking. So let me share with you some of the ways that I remember these core values and understand what they look like.

There are four core values. If you think of the Westridge “W” – you could write one value along each of the four diagonal lines that make up the letter.

Two of the values start with I; two with R.

As I think about the values, I like to start from what I call the “inside out” – starting with integrity, as it is very personal and introspective, then moving on to respect and responsibility, and ending with inclusion – a value that focuses on bringing everyone together. So for me, arranging the letters in “I-R-R-I” order makes the most sense.
