Welcome

Hello! Welcome to Kindergarten!! I am so excited to be your child's teacher this year. This school year will be filled with FUN, LOADS of discovery, LOTS of learning, and new adventures! There are many "firsts" that happen in Kindergarten, and I am thrilled to be a part of them. I am looking forward to partnering with you this school year and instilling a LOVE for learning in your child. I have recorded (with my voice) a fun story for your child to watch and listen to on this QR code: (You can use your phone camera to access it.)

Empowering Family-Teacher Partnerships: Building Connections Within Diverse Communities Mick Coleman, 2012-03 Empowering Family Teacher Partnerships Building Connections Within Diverse Communities prepares students to work collaboratively with families and community professionals in support of children's early education and development. Students are invited to develop a personal philosophy of family involvement to guide their work with families and to join a community of learners in relying upon their collective insights and problem solving skills to address family involvement challenges. The author takes a student centered approach to delivering substantive information and framing activities providing a comprehensive coverage of the diversity of family lives represented in classrooms and strategies for working with those families b challenges to family involvement and strategies for addressing them c strategies for communicating effectively with and empowering families and d reflections activities tip boxes and field assignments designed to facilitate students skills in building positive family school community partnerships Kindergarten Marjorie E. Ramsey, Kathleen M. Bayless, 1980 Public Relations for School Personnel Frank C. Mayer, 1974 Engaging the Families of ELLs Renee Rubin, John Sutterby, Michelle Abrego, 2013-07-23 Learn how to involve the diverse families of English language learners with the effective practical approaches in this book. This must have resource for teachers and school leaders is packed with fresh ideas geared toward building a partnership between school communities and ELL families. The authors begin each chapter with realistic scenarios that commonly arise with ELL families. They offer activities designed to assess current practices investigate family perceptions and expectations overcome challenges and improve communication. The strategies in this book help you engage families at school and at home in innovative and successful ways. Organized with the busy educator in mind the book can be read straight through or section by section to best fit your specific needs. As a bonus every chapter concludes with a wealth of useful resources on every topic. As the demographics of America's schools continue to grow and change this book guides you to building a school community in which every family can thrive The New Teacher's Complete Sourcebook Bonnie P. Murray, 2002 A seasoned elementary teacher shares her strategies in this amazing super practical guide. You'll find everything you need to set up your classroom for maximum learning prepare dynamite lessons create an effective classroom management plan and so much more. From getting ready for the first day to staying on target through June this must have book will be your companion for years to come. For use with Grades K-4 Reaching Out Diane W. Kyle, Ellen McIntyre, Karen B. Miller, Gayle H. Moore, 2002-07-19 The timing for Reaching Out could not have been better. Just when educators are beginning to realize that teachers need training in how to work with parents Kyle McIntyre Miller and Moore bring us a book that is a welcome breath of fresh air. Patricia A. Edwards Professor of Language and Literacy Michigan State University Reaching Out describes a great variety of ways to respectfully and productively engage families in helping their children learn and grow. Throughout the text the reader is reminded that parents are experts about their children and that trusting relationships are built on respectful two way communications The authors also remind us that the goal of family involvement is not parent participation at school events and activities but improved student achievement Steve McCafferty Principal Mildred Dean School Newport KY Involve families in the education process and enhance your students learning experience Too often today s student feels alienated from school and learning suffers as a result Developing a relationship with the family can provide the missing link in the educational chain Reaching Out is an invaluable resource for compassionate educators interested in building strong relationships with their students families A dynamic team of teachers and teacher educators have combined their first hand experience and in depth research in this essential guidebook By involving the entire family in the educational experience teachers can bridge the gap separating home and school and help produce happier healthier and smarter kids Highlights include Building trust with families Communicating in positive ways with students families Implementing family workshops Involving families through innovative homework ideas Based on a five year study the information will be particularly helpful for teachers whose classrooms reflect a diverse student population By incorporating these concepts and techniques you not only enhance the learning experience you also help your students to be more compassionate and excited about school MACLAS
