Sisters In The Wilderness The Challenge Of Womanist God Talk:

Sisters in the Wilderness Delores S. Williams, 1993 This landmark work in emerging African American womanist thought uses the image of Hagar mother of Ishmael cast into the wilderness by Abraham and Sarah but protected by God as a prototype for African American women Williams sees in the story of Hagar an African woman surrogate mother homeless exiled an image of survival and defiance that is appropriate to African American women today Index

Feminist Theology and the Challenge of Difference Margaret D. Kamitsuka, 2007-07-20 Kamitsuka cautions the feminist theological community against the possibility of excluding some segments of the female population in its quest for liberation She directs her readers attention to the fact that most feminist theologians are writing from a position of privilege as white heterosexual women Applying postmodern and postcolonial thought to better explore feminist theology Kamitsuka argues that the feminist theological movement needs to consider a broader range of issues affecting women today Focusing on womens experience as portrayed in literature biblical narrative and ethnographic writing Kamitsuka examines the assumptions of first wave feminist theology and reflects on the roles of race and sexuality and their possible impact on feminist theological trends

An Introduction to Ecclesiology Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2021-03-02 What is the church In this thoroughly revised and updated text Veli Matti Kärkkäinen provides a wide ranging survey of ecclesiology in the midst of rapid developments and new horizons This unique primer not only orients readers to biblical historical and contemporary ecclesiologies but also highlights contextual and global perspectives The Nonviolent Atonement, Second Edition J. Denny Weaver, 2011-01-26 A provocative study that cuts to the very heart of Christian thought The Nonviolent Atonement challenges the traditional Anselmian understanding of atonement along with the assumption that heavenly justice depends on Christ s passive innocent submission to violent death at the hands of a cruel God Instead J Denny Weaver offers a thoroughly nonviolent paradigm for understanding atonement grounded in the New Testament and sensitive to the concerns of pacifist black feminist and womanist theology While many scholars have engaged the subject of violence in atonement theology Weaver s Nonviolent Atonement is the only book that offers a radically new theory rather than simply refurbishing existing theories Key features of this revised and updated second edition include new material on Paul and Anselm expanded discussion on the development of violence in theology interaction with recent scholarship on atonement and response to criticisms of Weaver s original work Praise for the first edition The best current single volume on reconstructing the theology of atonement S Mark Heim in Anglican Theological Review Weaver provides an important contribution to atonement theories by seriously inserting the contemporary concerns of pacifist feminist womanist and black theologians into the centuries old christological conversation A provocative but faithful proposal benefiting any student of christology Religious Studies Review A noteworthy contribution to the literature on the atonement Weaver provides a useful critique of the history of atonement motifs he does a fine job of placing Anselm s theology in its historical context he creatively fuses a singular biblical vision from the earthly narrative of the Gospels and the cosmic perspective of the Apocalypse and he attempts to relate discussions of the atonement to Christian social ethics Trinity Journal This is a superb succinct survey and analysis of classical and contemporary theories of the atonement ideal for students and general readers A clearly written passionately expressed introduction to current debates on the atonement Excellent resource Reviews in Religion and Theology

Deconstructing Undecidability Michael Oliver,2020-02-06 Advancing current readings of the deconstructive work of Jacques Derrida

Deconstructing Undecidability critically explores the problematic nature of decision including the inherent exclusivity that accompanies any decision In discourses where a pursuit of justice or liberation from systemic oppression is a primary concern Michael Oliver argues for an appreciation of the inescapability of making limited difficult decisions for particular forms of justice Oliver highlights a similarly precarious predicament in the context of philosophical and religious negotiations of divine decision pointing to the impossibility of safely navigating this issue While wholeheartedly affirming the problem of exclusivity that inevitably accompanies decision this book offers a renewed sense of undecidability that highlights a mistaken illusory position of indecision as a reflection of power and privilege Ultimately this book aims to gain a greater appreciation for the complexity of the problem of decision in order to be more rigorous and transparent in our continued engagement with it

Black Women and Breast Cancer Elizabeth A. Williams,2018-11-16 Christian theology at its core is a story about someone being in trouble In response to this trouble the triune God intervenes God identifies with those in trouble walking with them through the experience Yet the God of Christian theology goes a step further God prevails over trouble God is an overcomer Black women with breast cancer identify with this God They also see themselves in this theological narrative They see themselves in the midst of troubles troubles like racism poverty and environmental exposures that create the disease affecting their bodies They see the troubles of breast cancer their biological disposition towards more aggressive cancers later stage diagnoses poorer prognoses diminished quality of care and worse outcomes Black women also palpably feel the troubles breast cancer brings like fear physical disfigurement social isolation being stereotyped for treatment decisions abandonment and even death Black women feel the myriad troubles breast cancer brings But Black women also know God in their troubles They know an active God who identifies with and prioritizes their needs They know this God through scripture and experience as God who puts them front and center And because they know God as an overcomer and creative force they know themselves as overcomers For with God their troubles do not last always Black women with breast cancer construct a cultural theology of breast cancer out of knowing God Borne out of experiences of the Black Church womanist theology and their intersectional identities of race class and gender this theological investigation informed by anthropology examines how Black women construct an ontology of who God is and how God operates and gain a God consciousness that shapes their response to the disease Using pain faith and testimony as tools to struggle against breast cancer Black survivors theology transforms them from victims of breast cancer to change agents Out of their lives as survivors comes a theology of complex hope one cognizant of Black women s breast cancer disparities yet oriented towards Black women s achievement of health in the present and the future a sufficient hope to sustain Black women through it all Las Hermanas Lara Medina,1998

Daughters of Dignity LaVerne McCain Gill,2000 African American women today have been left at the mercy of media portrayals that often depict them as pregnant and promiscuous or as prostitutes and welfare cases To erase these hurtful and inaccurate stereotypes and to reclaim a connection with their deep ethical roots and moral heritage these women must learn the stories of strength courage and faith that propelled generations of their foremothers into the world supported by justice love faith wisdom and perseverance virtues that would empower them to raise strong families and have productive careers Daughters Of Dignity seeks to identify these virtues and trace their roots Presenting biblical and theological foundations to validate the experiences of the African American woman LaVerne McCain Gill also offers historical and contemporary role models including Sojourner Truth and Rosa Parks who embodied these virtues Finally she gives suggestions for self evaluation and narratives on contemporary programs to successfully reestablish an ethic of black womanhood in the community

Mediations in Theology Jacques Haers,2003 On the occasion of the retirement of Prof Georges De Schrijver his former students organised a special symposium in close collaboration with the Centre for Liberation Theologies of the Faculty of Theology K U Leuven and some of its friends and supporters Fifteen years earlier in 1987 the intellectual friendships between Fr Georges and his students based on their common concerns for a theology at the service of those who suffer gave birth to the Centre for Liberation Theologies Over the years a common project inspired theological investigation out of many different contexts requiring a close look at the mediations or processes of translation that would allow those contexts to fruitfully interact with theology This book contains a fundamental reflection on the practice of mediations in theology and provides concrete examples out of a variety of contexts It responds to the need for developing a new style of theology in which a common concern is expressed in a rich diversity of perspectives The idea of mediation provides one of the insights that allow to think the tension between unity and plurality Journal of Feminist Studies in Religion ,2004

Women's Visions Ofelia Ortega,1995 Theological reflection by women is enriching the encounter of churches across cultural national and confessional lines by offering a wealth of new perspectives and insights sometimes controversial always challenging Those undertaking this theological reflection share a commitment to read scripture and Christian tradition in the light of women s experience Not surprisingly the theology they are doing is as diverse as the contexts and traditions around the world in which women today live and struggle for survival justice and wholeness Such common perspectives and diverse experiences are mirrored in this collection of new essays by some of the most creative women theologians from different countries cultures and Christian confessions They offer their assessments of the situation of women and the state of women s theology in their own part of the world as well as feminist perspectives on such central theological issues as ecclesiology hermeneutics and homiletics Naming Grace Mary Catherine Hilkert,1997 It is not a lack of training in the art of rhetoric that accounts for the ineffectiveness of preaching within the Christian churches More significant is the lack of adequate theological foundations While recognizing the great contribution that neo orthodoxy and the dialectical imagination have made Hilkert s major contribution is a scholarly examination of the resources of the sacramental imagination God, Experience and Mystery Werner G. Jeanrond,Christoph Theobald,2001 An international journal of theology a catholic journal in the widest sense rooted in Roman Catholicism yet open to other Christian traditions and the world s faiths Promotes discussion in the spirit of Vatican II Annual subscriptions available For Information on Contents Click Here <http://www.concilium.org/english.htm> For Information On Subscriptions Click Here https://www.scmcanterburypress.co.uk/Secure/concilium_form.asp IFA Newsletter ,1994 The American Spiritual Culture William Dean,2004-04-21 Americans are perhaps the most openly and energetically religious of all the peoples among the developed nations Americans are religious in all the obvious ways belonging to churches synagogues and mosques as well as nurturing private spiritualities But they are religious also in public ways aiming to find a standard large enough to frame their common life and to judge them and their country In this book ow in paperback William Dean describes the spiritual culture that is grounded in the emerging American story He also explores the concept of God or the Ultimate that is central to that story a concept that is reflected in contemporary American culture including popular culture Theory and Method in the Study of Religion Carl Olson,2003 This anthology provides students with a useful collection of theoretical essays concerning the nature of religion and the methodological means by which scholars analytically approach the subject Organized in a point counterpoint fashion this volume will foster in class discussion and the honing of a student s own critical perspectives Journal of Theology for Southern Africa ,2007 American Journal of Theology & Philosophy ,1996 The Jesus of Asian Women Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro,2006 This critical survey of Asian christologies focuses on the need to recognize and end the oppressed condition of Asian women Orevillo Montenegro shows how the christologies brought to Asia by Western missionaries failed to take into account the reality of Asia with its great diversity of cultures and traditional religions
