Skadden Lincoln Caplan, 1994-10-30 In this unprecedented look at the culture of American lawyering Lincoln Caplan shows us Skadden's origins in the white shoe postwar legal world and its rise to preeminence in the era of Drexel Burnham Lambert the firm's largest client in the eighties Skadden is revealed as a place that prizes opportunists but which also created a 10 million program to support public interest lawyers In Caplan's probing and even handed account the story of Joe Flom's firm illuminates an era in America business and society Caplan's inside insights are fascinating It is as if we get not only one of L A Law's best episodes but also a lot of what is usually left on the cutting room floor Booklist

The Vanishing American Lawyer Thomas D. Morgan, 2010-02-01 Over 4 000 lawyers lost their positions at major American law firms in 2008 and 2009 In The Vanishing American Lawyer Professor Thomas Morgan discusses the legal profession and the need for both law students and lawyers to adapt to the needs and expectations of clients in the future The world needs people who understand institutions that create laws and how to access those institutions works but lawyers are no longer part of a profession that is uniquely qualified to advise on a broad range of distinctly legal questions Clients will need advisors who are more specialized than many lawyers are today and who have more expertise in non legal issues Many of today's lawyers do not have a special ability to provide such services While American lawyers have been hesitant to change the ways they can improve upon meeting client needs lawyers in other countries notably Great Britain and Australia have been better at adapting Law schools must also recognize the world their students will face and prepare them to operate successfully within it Professor Morgan warns that lawyers must adapt to new client needs and expectations The term professional should be applied to individuals who deserve praise for skilled and selfless efforts but this term may lead to occupational suicide if it becomes a justification for not seeing and adapting to the world ahead The Obits: New York Times Annual 2012 William McDonald,2011-11-11 The obits It's the first section many of us turn to when we open the paper not to see who died but rather to find out about who lived to discover the interesting lives of people who've made a mark A new annual that collects nearly 300 of the best of The New York Times obituaries from the previous year The Obits Annual 2012 is a compelling addictive as salted peanuts who's who of some of the most fascinating people of the twentieth century Written by top journalists each entry is a jewel a miniature nuanced biography filled with the facts we love to read with the surprise and serendipity of life There's David L Wolper the producer of Roots and the story of how he got his start purchasing film footage from Sputnik The jazz singer Abbey Lincoln and her change from glamorous performer she owned a dress of Marilyn Monroe's to civil rights activist she burned the Monroe dress Owsley Stanley the quirky perfecter of LSD who blamed a heart attack on the fact that his mother made him eat broccoli as a child Patricia Neal known by most as a movie star but her real life filled with tragedy adversity and incredible professional ups and downs is almost a surreal play of triumph and tragedy Arranged chronologically like the obits themselves it's a deliciously random walk through the recent past meeting the philosophers newsmen spies publishers moguls soul singers baseball managers Nobel Prize winners models and others who've shaped the world ABA Journal,1994-03 The ABA Journal serves the legal profession Qualified recipients are lawyers and judges law students law librarians and associate members of the American Bar Association Symposium on the Globalization of the Legal Profession,2008 The Confrontation Between the Big Five and Big Law Yves Dezelay,Bryant G. Explaining the Inexplicable Rodent (Attorney),1995 The entertaining subversive and biting style of the Rodent has earned him a national audience He now treats readers to his first book length expose which lifts the rock off the judicial community to reveal tips for survival at the Firm how lawyers gnaw their way to the top how to master the art of overbilling and more An outrageous insightful swipe at members of the Bar     The Writers Directory ,2013     Cross-selling Success Ford Harding,2002 Ford Harding author of Rain Making The Professional s Guide to Attracting New Clients now takes readers into exciting new sales territory showing how to sell multiple services to the same client and how to sell business services to different divisions of the same account     Law Librarianship Laura N.
