Assessing Students with Special Needs to Produce Quality Outcomes Carol A. Layton, Robin Hartman Lock, 2008
Assessing Students with Special Needs to Produce Quality Outcomes promotes outcome based evaluation to guide the Multidisciplinary Team MDT in selecting appropriate Individualized Education Program IEP goals classroom modifications and accommodations as well as optimal instructional strategies It advances the development of assessment based IEPs to enable the MDT to pinpoint and address specific needs to improve student outcomes Obtaining data from a variety of perspectives and settings improves the opportunity for identifying overall competencies and needs in preparation for higher functioning in all settings Assessing Students with Special Needs to Produce Quality Outcomes presents an integrated look at a variety of assessment methods in an easy to read book FEATURES Recommends student centered strength based assessment techniques by providing reality based stories to aid the reader in understanding how the tools of formal informal and authentic assessment merge to provide a more complete understanding of the student Provides special features for linking IEP development and daily instruction to highlight the fundamental relationship between assessment and the IEP Emphasizes the growing role of technology in the assessment process as identified by IDEA 2004 to utilize assistive technology in evaluation and instruction Includes innovative research based techniques not extensively explored in other assessment textbooks Explains the impact of cultural diversity on assessment issues and provides specific recommendations for addressing nondiscriminatory culturally sensitive evaluation to prepare the reader to meet the needs of a diverse society Proposes authentic strategies to increase parent teacher and student participation in the IEP process as mandated by IDEA 2004 Resources in education ,1983-05 Assessing Special Students James A. McLoughlin, Rena B. Lewis, 1981

Teaching Children Mathematics ,2001 Resources in Education ,1990 Power, Culture, and Family-School Relations Jen Stacy, 2025-01-30 Power Culture and Family School Relations Towards Culturally Sustaining Practices explores the extent to which common practices in school based family outreach advance equity or sustain the status quo in power and cultural relations Using a rich ethnographic account of a school based family literacy program in Nebraska the book unfolds the daily cultural practices of the program so that readers may visualize and contemplate how and if the program serves newcomer and refugee families within the unique context of the New Latine Diaspora The author draws upon critical theory to showcase how neoliberal and deficit ideologies are at play throughout the different aspects of the program the influence these ideologies have on the participants and the tactics used by the caregivers to resist and change the programmatic structures and curriculum to meet their needs As such the book invites educators administrators and scholars into the nebulous and difficult conversation about how schools paradoxical entities that often colonize but prospectively liberate must not just rethink how they work with parents and caregivers but rather dismantle traditional cultural practices that seek to assimilate minoritized families Showcasing the power of ethnography as a tool which can be used to support educators and scholars to understand cultural elements of family outreach programs on a semiotic level and how transforming these semiotic building blocks can lead to equitable relationships it will appeal to scholars and researchers with interests in adult education social foundations of education critical ethnography multilingual Adult Basic Education and family outreach     Te HS&T a Holt Rinehart & Winston,Holt, Rinehart and Winston Staff,2004-02     Holt Science and Technology 2002 Holt Rinehart & Winston,Holt, Rinehart and Winston Staff,2002     The Education Index ,1988
