The Price We Pay AURYN. HADLEY,2025-04-19 Everyone wants to give in to temptation but no one wants to pay the price I was a child when my father surrendered me to the Temple of All Gods No one gave me a choice No one even bothered to explain I was simply tossed aside unwanted That was the day the God of Temptation claimed me as his Now I m studying how to become the perfect priestess Life in the temple means embracing my emotions and learning to harness each type of desire Power fear lust and rage are the most common but not the only ones Each has a power Each has its place I just have to figure out which kind of priestess I ll become Before I decide I have questions yet no one seems willing to give me answers My only option is to leave it in my god s hands This won t be easy and my instructors think I m a fool but Temptation has been listening Asking Offering it all In exchange he intends to use me I have demands The priest and priestess who took me in have become my family The guys They taught me to love How am I supposed to give this up Why should I Not even a god can make me walk away from them All I have to do is stand my ground In this temple there s always a temptation The question is if I m stubborn enough to resist Or brave enough to pay a god s price
