Critical Perspectives on Economics of Education Silvia Mendolia, Martin O'Brien, Alfredo R. Paloyo, Oleg Yerokhin, 2022-05-18 This book brings together leading scholars in the field to provide insights on economics of education. The book begins with an overview of education and human capacity development and looks at the production of education through individuals learning education financing and the role of individual circumstances. It also analyses the complex relationship between education and mobility and highlights what key challenges for education systems in a global world are. Each chapter provides detailed analysis of interesting and policy relevant topics in the fields of education economics and human capacity development. This book is a useful reference for those who wish to understand the changing landscape and models of higher education in the context of digital advances and innovation. It will also be of interest to those in the areas of education and training.

Reviews of National Policies for Education: Chile 2004

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development,2004-03-04 Education has been a central priority for Chile since the return of a democratic government in 1990 Thanks to a sustained economic growth and a commitment to increasing public investment in education Chile has made a number of key improvements to the education system during this period A recent reform ensures twelve years of free and compulsory schooling for all Chilean children Enrolment in secondary education has expanded rapidly and teachers salaries have increased by 140% If current trends are anything to go by more than 800 000 students will be enrolled in higher education by 2010 Chile has achieved a great deal in a short period becoming the leader in Latin America for improving the quality of and access to all levels of education

Reviews of National Policies for Education Chile covers the entire system of Chilean education from pre school through tertiary education and lifelong learning for all and analyses it in terms of its economic social and political impact The review is based on the OECD's ongoing co-operation with non member economies around the world It is particularly interesting for those involved in educational policy as well as professionals directly working in the education system of Chile

House of Commons - Committee of Public Accounts: Student Loan Repayments - HC 886 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Committee of Public Accounts,2014-02-14 There is at present around 46 billion of outstanding student loans on the Government's books and this figure is set to rise dramatically to 200 billion by 2042 in 2013 prices By 2042 there will be an estimated 6.5 million borrowers of student loans At the same time estimates for the amount of loans that will not be repaid are also rising and the Government assumes that 35-40% of outstanding loans will never be repaid That is some 16 billion to 18 billion on the current debt of 46 billion and 70 billion to 80 billion on the estimated value of student loans by 2042 The Department for Business Innovation Skills the Department is not doing enough to secure value for money from its collection arrangements

The Department is unable to accurately forecast student loan repayments and does not have a sufficient understanding of the likely future cost of non repayment to the taxpayer The Student Loans Company is not doing enough to ensure that it identifies and collects all the repayments due given the substantial size of the financial assets involved and will need to demonstrate value for money from the proposed sale of the student loans book
