Brian De Palma (Scarecrow Filmmakers Series) Michael

Bliss,1983 Micro-Budget Filmmaking Chuck Facas,2014-02 Film shoots are stressful Believe me They re a crazy combination of time restraints money issues equipment malfunctions coordinating schedules and of course art That s why you need to know as much as you can before going into it In Micro Budget Filmmaking I walk you through the entire filmmaking process and let you know what to expect and how to deal with it Can you make a professional feature film for little to no money Yes But it would take a lot of practice planning and knowhow It s definitely possible though especially with the great cameras available today The same goes for lighting and sound equipment In fact you could even use your phone In my last film we used an iPhone in an emergency And after that all you need is a computer So you really can make a high quality film for little to no money It s not easy but it s possible But even if you know how to do it there s still one thing left the script Whether you have 10 or 10 million if your script stinks then your film will stink Guaranteed So all you aspiring filmmakers out there take your time writing or finding a great script Before making my first feature I read a lot of filmmaking books to help prepare But out of the 10 books I read only one was somewhat useful It s called From Reel to Deal Dov Simens but even that wasn t detailed enough and it certainly didn t prep me for a real film shoot This is truly the only filmmaking book you need Everything is covered including over 70 FULL COLOR HD PHOTOS so you can SEE what to do rather than READ what to do All aspects of filmmaking are explained in detail like how to write a great screenplay and format it in a text editor how to direct like a pro how to cast the best actors and get great performances how to capture the right shots how to choose the right equipment how and when to light the set how to properly record sound how to create a slick edit how to deal with adversity on the set and much much more So whether or not you re the next Steven Spielberg you ll learn everything you need to know about making high quality films on a micro budget But I really hope you ARE the next Steven Spielberg We can sure use some better movies out there Best chuck facas
