The Middle Sea John Julius Norwich, 2007 This text examines characters from the history of the Mediterranean dissolute popes and wily emperors generals and queens who were powers behind the throne It also deals with naval and military history from the Crusades to the expulsion of the Moors from Spain The Making of the Middle Sea Cyprian Broodbank, 2024-10-17 The Mediterranean has been for millennia one of the global cockpits of human endeavour World class interpretations exist of its Classical and subsequent history but there has been remarkably little holistic exploration of how its societies culture and economies first came into being despite the fact that almost all the fundamental developments originated well before 500 BC Mediterranean archaeology is one of the worlds richest sources for the reconstruction of ancient societies yet this book is the first to draw in equal measure on ideas and information from the European western Asian and African flanks as well as the islands at the Mediterraneans heart to achieve a truly innovative focus on the varied trajectories and interactions that created this maritime world The Making of the Middle Sea is extensively illustrated and ranges across disciplines subject matter and chronology from early humans and the origins of farming and metallurgy to the rise of civilizations Egyptian Levantine Minoan Mycenaean Phoenician Etruscan early Greek and ultimately pan Mediterranean The Middle Sea John Julius Norwich, 2006 The Mediterranean has nurtured three of the most dazzling civilizations of antiquity Egypt Greece and Rome It has witnessed the birth or growth of three of our greatest religions Judaism Christianity and Islam It links three of the world s six continents Europe Asia and Africa To the peoples living around its periphery it has served at various time as a cradle and a grave a bond and a barrier a blessing and a battlefield It has inspired writers from Homer and Virgil to Norman Douglas and Patrick Leigh Fermor Geographically it is unlike any other sea in the world in historical importance also it stands alone The Middle Sea Leslie Gilbert Pine, 1950 The Middle Sea Leslie Gilbert Pine, 1950 The Routledge Handbook of Maritime Trade around Europe 1300-1600 Wim Blockmans, Mikhail Krom, Justyna Wubs-Mrozewicz, 2017-02-17 The Routledge Handbook of Maritime Trade around Europe 1300 1600 explores the links between maritime trading networks around Europe from the Mediterranean and the Atlantic to the North and Baltic Seas Maritime trade routes connected diverse geographical and cultural spheres contributing to a more integrated Europe in both cultural and material terms This volume explores networks economic functions alongside their intercultural exchanges contacts and practical arrangements in ports on the European coasts The collection takes as its central question how shippers and merchants were able to connect regional and interregional trade circuits around and beyond Europe in the late medieval period It is divided into four parts with chapters in Part I looking across broad themes such as ships and sailing routes maritime law financial linkages and linguistic exchanges In the following parts divided into the Mediterranean the Baltic Sea and the Atlantic and North Seas contributors present case studies addressing themes including conflict resolution relations between different types of main ports and their hinterland the local institutional
