

A painting of a wedding ceremony taking place in a grand, gothic-style cathedral. The scene is set on a raised platform with a red carpet. A bride in a white dress is lying face down on the steps, while a groom in a dark suit kneels beside her, holding her hand. A priest in a white robe stands behind the altar, looking down at the couple. The cathedral's interior is characterized by high, arched windows with intricate tracery, allowing light to filter through. The overall mood is dark and somber, with a hint of the supernatural or horror, as suggested by the title.
