

Third Month

It goes without saying that you should minimize distractions in your home. These potential sources for temptation are plentiful and there are lots of them. You can consider the other potential sources, including electronic gaming, alcohol, smoking, food, TV, and movies. You can consider the positive and negative outcomes of these temptations. They might please your ego and make you feel like you're doing well, but not provide the long-term satisfaction you truly deserved or something better. So, let your focus stay on the desired path. Remember, temptation is everywhere, and there are plenty around you in your environment. Only focus on what's important. Prioritize, focus, and then move forward.
