Understanding World Heritage in Asia and the Pacific - N° 35 - The Second Cycle of Periodic Reporting 2010-2012 Kaori Kawakami, 2012 The Municipal Financial Crisis Mark Moses, 2022-01-06 City governments are going bankrupt Even the ones that aren't are often stuck in financial chaos It is easy to blame pensions poor leadership or a bad economy But the problems go much deeper With decades of experience in local government author Mark Moses showcases the inside world of the city decision making process that has spawned these crises It becomes clear City governments are maxing out their budgets because they are trying to maximize services This book likely the most ambitious attempt by someone who has worked in government to radically examine the delivery of municipal services since Reinventing Government was published more than 25 years ago explores why city governments pursue an open ended mission and why bailouts and trendy budgeting processes will be at best only temporary solutions Of interest to current and future city council members regional and state government officials those covering city government financial analysts city management and individuals and organizations interested in influencing city policy this book argues that cities won't thrive until city hall is disrupted
