Illegal Literature David S. Roh, 2015-12-31 What is the cultural value of illegal works that violate the copyrights of popular fiction Why do they persist despite clear and stringent intellectual property laws Drawing on the disciplines of new media law and literary studies Illegal Literature suggests that extralegal works such as fan fiction are critical to a system that spurs the evolution of culture Reconsidering voices relegated to the cultural periphery David S Roh shows how infrastructure in the form of legal policy and network distribution slows or accelerates the rate of change He analyzes the relationship between intellectual property rights and American literature in two recent copyright disputes And in comparing American fan fiction and Japanese dojinshi he illustrates how infrastructure and legal climates detract from or encourage fledgling creativity Illegal Literature fills a crucial gap between the scholarly and the popular by closely examining several modes of marginalized cultural production Roh makes the case for protecting an environment conducive to literary heresy the articulation of an accretive rather than solitary authorial genius and the idea that letting go rather than holding on is important to a generative creative process In a media ecology inundated by unauthorized materials Illegal Literature argues that the proliferation of unsanctioned texts may actually benefit literary and cultural development

Your First $1000 Joanna Wiebe, 2022-12-01

You can make an extra $1000 a month with a copywriting side hustle. Did you know that copywriters are among the highest paid professionals in the world? Some direct response copywriters have bought vacation homes with the pay from a single sales letter. And with the massive migration of businesses to the online world the need is greater than ever to hire freelancers who can write emails, ads, websites, and sales pages. Which means NOW is the perfect time to get paid to write. What could earning an extra $1000 a month with copywriting mean? Catching up on bills, Replenishing your savings account, Making a sizable monthly payment on your student loans, Taking a family vacation this year, Getting that new computer you've had your eye on, Saying Yes to your kids' new activity and all the equipment they need for it. Joanna Wiebe, founder of Copyhackers, shows you exactly how to make money online from home with one of the highest paying side hustles out there: freelance copywriting. In the first few chapters, Joanna takes you step by step through the exact actions you can take to make $1000 a month on the side in just 5 hours a week. And what to do to get your first paying side gig in the next 7 days. There's no need to go through
