Down Here We Come Up Sara Johnson Allen, 2024-11-19 Winner of the 2022 Big Moose Prize Down Here We Come Up is about three women who are mothers and have lost connection with their children through alienation adoption and across a militarized border Their lives intersect in a safe house for migrant workers outside of Wilmington North Carolina in 2006 From her deathbed con artist Jackie Jessup lures home her estranged 26 year old daughter Kate Jessup There Kate meets former teacher Maribel Reyes who is separated from her family in Ciudad Ju rez While none of these women trust each other they do have a chance to get back what they have each lost But they must rely on each other to hatch a perilous plan Kate doubts could ever work She knows to distrust the motives behind any of her mother s plans Something unseen is smoldering underneath the surface Kate just needs to figure it out As the three women work alongside each other the evils of human trafficking the lucrative lure of the drug and weapons trade and the heartbreak of people fleeing their homelands flow through Jackie s bungalow day and night A story of mothers and daughters lost children and broken love Down Here We Come Up takes a raw and intimate look at flawed people who are trying to make up for lost time and past mistakes Into

She muses on those lessons learned in Kindergarten that every woman must unlearn like not having to hold the hand of the person you're waking next to especially if he's a bad boyfriend or needing to have milk cookies and a nap every day at 3:00 PM which tends to sap one's energy not to mention what it does to one's waistline She sounds off about all those things a woman hates to hear from a man like Calm down or Next time try buying shoes that fit If You Lean In Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse is about getting loud getting love getting ahead and getting the first draw or the last shot Here are tips lessons and bold confessions about bad boyfriends at any age about friends we love and ones we can't stand anymore about waist size and wasted time about panic placebos placentas and certain kinds of not so adorable paternalism attached to certain kinds of politicians The world is kept lively by loud women talking and If You Lean In Will Men Just Look Down Your Blouse cheers and challenges those voices to come together and speak up You think she's kidding Oh boy do you have another thing coming
