

Church Welcome Speech

I want to take a moment to extend a very warm welcome to everyone who's visiting us for the first time this morning. Whether you're just having a look, or are searching out for a place to worship, we're delighted to have you here.

To give you some idea of what we're all about, I'll quickly sketch some of our foundational beliefs.

Our vision says this: Getting and growing people in relationship with Jesus.

So firstly, we're all about Jesus Christ. We believe that Jesus was who he said he was, the Son of God who came and died for our sins. So if this is your first time in church, we hope that get to know Him as we do, because He's truly what life is all about for us!

Secondly we're all about people. Every person who walks through our doors is important to us, so if you ever feel like just another number, we're doing something wrong and I give you permission to tell me about it.

As a group of God's people we care about you and your family and we're here not only to feed you spiritually, but to help in any way we can. We love doing it and it's why we exist!

Pastors are called to an exciting ministry of proclamation and leadership That excitement however often turns to demoralization and burnout as pastors become increasingly uncertain of what their role is supposed to be Competing claims by the congregation the denomination and society about who and what the pastor is supposed to be breed confusion and disappointment A way out of this confusion lies in reclaiming the biblical understanding of who the pastor is One of the biblical roles within the pastoral vocation that often goes neglected is that of wise teacher or sage Scripture presents as a model of pastoral leadership those who interpret the word and will of God for daily living Especially in their preaching pastors are called to help the congregation understand their place in God s world In this book Alyce McKenzie lays out the four qualities of the wise teacher the bended knee the listening heart the cool head and the courageous voice and encourages pastors to make each of these integral to their ministry and vocation She goes on to demonstrate that the sermon is the prime opportunity to function in the role of wise teacher She offers strategies for applying biblical wisdom to all areas of everyday life      Missions Howard Benjamin Grose,1927
