We Are The Mods A Transnational History Of A Youth Subculture Mediated Youth:

"We are the Mods" Christine Jacqueline Feldman,2009 Drawing on archival research oral history interviews and participant observation this examination of the adoption and adaptation of Mod style across geographic space also maps its various interpretations over time from the early 1960s to the present The book traces the Mod youth culture from its genesis in the dimly lit clubs of London s Soho where it began as a way for young people to reconfigure modernity after the chaos of World War II to its contemporary country specific expressions By examining Mod culture in the United States Germany and Japan alongside the United Kingdom We Are the Mods contrasts the postwar development of Mod in those countries that lost the war with those that won The book illuminates the culture s fashion music iconography and gender aesthetics to create a compelling portrait of a transnational subculture Book Jacket Teenage Time Pamela Thurschwell,2025-07-24

Adolescence has been codified as an unpredictable experimental and liminal time Teenage Time reads this phase as queer in its framing and disruption of developmental narratives of modernity showing that the identity of the teenager as it has been culturally perceived in different epochs developing since the 1940s has shaped the temporal imaginary of the 20th and 21st century From the conception of the teenager after the Second World War through notions of rebellion and consumption peaking in the 1980s and 1990s to representations of their precarious futures amidst the political social economic and environmental uncertainties of today Pamela Thurschwell exposes British and American representations of the adolescent as both destructive and recursive in their disturbance of narrative and teleology in literature film and sub cultural history Calling on theories of queer temporality time studies psychoanalysis and Marxist accounts of modernity this book traces how the teenager is out of time and time travelling commodified anarchic futureless precarious with an uneven distribution of time in relation to race and how they confront dystopias in Young Adult catastrophe literature Covering a wide range of works this book features contemporary and YA fiction such as The Member of the Wedding American Pastoral Sula The Hate U Give The Fault in Our Stars How I Live Now Never Let Me Go The Hunger Games and They Both Die at the End and films including Donnie Darko The Breakfast Club Back to the Future Say Anything and Ghost World Original and conceptually sophisticated Thurschwell demonstrates how adolescence is formed in dialogue with a crisis in and of historical time revealing the promise and destruction of the modern teenager Hebdige and Subculture in the Twenty-First Century Keith Gildart,Anna Gough-Yates,Sian Lincoln,Bill Osgerby,Lucy Robinson,John Street,Peter Webb,Matthew Worley,2020-04-22 This book assesses the legacy of Dick Hebdige and his work on subcultures in his seminal work Subculture The Meaning of Style 1979 The volume interrogates the concept of subculture put forward by Hebdige and asks if this concept is still capable of helping us understand the subcultures of the twenty first century The contributors to this volume assess the main theoretical trends behind Hebdige s work critically engaging with their value and how they orient a researcher or student of subculture and also look at some absences in Hebdige s original account of subculture such as gender and ethnicity The book concludes with an interview with Hebdige himself where he deals with questions about his concept of subculture and the gestation of his original work in a way that shows his seriousness and humour in equal measure This volume is a vital contribution to the debate on subculture from some of the best researchers and academics working in the field in the twenty first century
