Race, Sport and Politics Ben Carrington, 2010-08-01 Written by one of the leading international authorities on the sociology of race and sport this is the first book to address sport's role in the making of race the place of sport within black diasporic struggles for freedom and equality and the contested location of sport in relation to the politics of recognition within contemporary multicultural societies Race Sport and Politics shows how during the first

decades of the twentieth century the idea of the natural black athlete was invented in order to make sense of and curtail the political impact and cultural achievements of black sportswomen and men More recently the black athlete as sign has become a highly commodified object within contemporary hyper commercialized sports media culture thus limiting the transformative potential of critically conscious black athleticism to re imagine what it means to be both black and human in the twenty first century Race Sport and Politics will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology of culture and sport the sociology of race and diaspora studies postcolonial theory cultural theory and cultural studies

War Without End Michael Schwartz,2008 In this razor sharp analysis TomDispatch com commentator Michael Schwartz turns every mainstream conclusion about Iraq on its head He shows how US occupation is fueling civil war in Iraq and beyond and how US officials dismantled the Iraqi state and economy helping to destroy rather than rebuild the country In a popular style reminiscent of the best writing against the Vietnam War he punctures the myths used to sell the US public the idea of an endless war on terror centered in Iraq Schwartz shows how the real US interests in Iraq were rooted in the geopolitics of oil and the expansion of a neoliberal economic model in the Middle East and around the globe at gunpoint War Without End also reveals how the failure of the United States in Iraq has forced US planners to fundamentally rethink the imperial dreams driving recent foreign policy This book is the third in a series of very successful books published in cooperation with TomDispatch com including the New York Times bestseller United States v George W Bush et al by Elizabeth de la Vega Seven Stories Press Michael Schwartz professor of sociology and faculty director of the Undergraduate College of Global Studies at Stony Brook University has written extensively on the war in Iraq at websites including TomDispatch ZNet Asia Times and Mother Jones and in numerous magazines including Contexts Against the Current and Z Magazine International Socialist Review ,2008
