Academic Performance ,2024-09-18 Academic performance is an unavoidable topic for educational scientists instructional experts students faculty staff academic managers parents families and policymakers While student academic performance is a topic of passionate discussion it is also interconnected with both faculty staff and higher education institutions Achieving academic success requires more than just the efforts of the student The teaching profession in higher education increasingly demands measurable results to attest to its efficiency And the need for the accountability required from higher education institutions tends to influence institutional strategic plans according to tangible and measurable goals This book will aim to cover the different perspectives of academic performance placing on the stage the different actors in higher education students faculty and institutions

Governing Universities Globally Roger King,2009-01-01 Governing Universities Globally provides a comprehensive account of higher education in the world today and successfully demonstrates how the study of universities now needs to acknowledge to the global environment Andrew Steven Gunn Political Studies Roger King examines how universities as increasingly autonomous organizations are subject to forms of global governance that rely particularly on private and peer processes rather than legal command and compliance The book explores the growing influence of global regulatory governance governmental and private on universities and national higher education systems It considers processes of purposeful standardization normative internalization and markets as solutions for coordination and collective action problems as well as hierarchical command A range of university systems world models and organizations particularly those associated with Europe and the OECD are examined with particular emphasis on the growth of national and global league tables and similar rankings of higher education institutions as a form of regulation Governance globally is found to operate through steerage networks deliberation and communities of the knowledgeable and the expert The comprehensive coverage of global university governance includes conceptual theoretical and empirical analyses that will be invaluable to higher education researchers and students and to public policy academics students and practitioners Global governance analysts global business and management postgraduates as well as regulation theorists and practitioners will also find this book to be of great interest

Sustainability on University Campuses: Learning, Skills Building and Best Practices Walter Leal Filho,Ugo Bardi,2019-06-03 The implementation of sustainability initiatives on campuses is an essential component of promoting sustainability in the higher education context In addition to reflecting an awareness of environmental issues campus programmes demonstrate how seriously universities take sustainability at the institutional level There is a lack of truly interdisciplinary publications that comprehensively address the issue of campus greening and there is an even greater need for publications that do so at a truly international level This book meets these needs It is one of the outcomes of the Second Symposium on Sustainability in University Campuses SSUC 2018 which was jointly organised by the University of Florence Italy Manchester Metropolitan University UK the Research and Transfer Centre Sustainable Development and

Climate Change Management and the European School of Sustainability Science and Research at the Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Germany in cooperation with the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP The book showcases examples of campus based research and teaching projects regenerative campus design low carbon and zero carbon buildings waste prevention and resilient transport among others Ultimately it demonstrates the role of campuses as platforms for transformative social learning and research and explores the means by which university campuses can be made more sustainable The aims of this publication are as follows to provide universities with essential information on campus greening and sustainable campus development initiatives from around the world to share ideas and lessons learned in the course of research teaching and projects on campus greening and design especially successful initiatives and good practice and to introduce methodological approaches and projects intended to integrate the topic of sustainable development in campus design and operations This book gathers contributions from researchers and practitioners in the field of campus greening and sustainable development in the widest sense from business and economics to the arts administration and the environment and hailing from Europe Latin America North America and Asia

the gap between higher education research and policy making was always a challenge but the recent calls for more evidence based policies have opened a window of unprecedented opportunity for researchers to bring more contributions to shaping the future of the European Higher Education Area EHEA Encouraged by the success of the 2011 first edition Romania and Armenia have organised a 2nd edition of the Future of Higher Education Bologna Process Researchers Conference FOHE BPRC in November 2014 with the support of the Italian Presidency of the European Union and as part of the official EHEA agenda Reuniting over 170 researchers from more than 30 countries the event was a forum to debate the trends and challenges faced by higher education today and look at the future of European cooperation in higher education The research volumes offer unique insights regarding the state of affairs of European higher education and research as well as forward looking policy proposals More than 50 articles focus on essential themes in higher education Internationalization of higher education Financing and governance Excellence and the diversification of missions Teaching learning and student engagement Equity and the social dimension of higher education Education research and innovation Quality assurance The impacts of the Bologna Process on the EHEA and beyond and Evidence based policies in higher education The Bologna process was launched at a time of great optimism about the future of the European project to which of course the reform of higher education across the continent has made a major contribution Today for the present that optimism has faded as economic troubles have accumulated in the Euro zone political tensions have been increased on issues such as immigration and armed conflict has broken out in Ukraine There is clearly a risk that against this troubled background the Bologna process itself may falter There are already signs that it has been downgraded in some countries with evidence of political withdrawal All the more reason for the voice of higher education researchers to be heard Since the first conference they have established themselves as powerful stakeholders in the development of the EHEA who are helping to maintain the momentum of the Bologna process Their pivotal role has been strengthened by the second Bucharest conference Peter Scott Institute of Education London General Rapporteur of the FOHE BPRC first edition

Higher Education in the Asian Century Christopher Hill, Rozilini M. Fernandez-Chung, 2016-12-01 There is increasing interest in the Asian arena both as a home for the delivery of international higher education and as a breeding ground for a new brand of sustainable domestic and international growth Academics are increasingly turning to Asia and Asian Education in order to better understand and predict the emerging trends of global education and this book will serve to provide a forum for debate of this nature The book provides an insight into the interplay of Asian and European education identifies the key areas for further development and firmly grounds the approach as one of conversation and dialogue rather than one sided dictation It also highlights the critical issues within the development of international education discusses the value and challenges of existing TNE practices as a mechanism to respond to the emerging Asian needs and provides an insight into the future direction of education in the Asian century
