Good Meal Prep Ideas For Beginners and Dummies Barbara Dawson,2020-08-18 Meal prepping is making a meal or recipe then portioning it out to grab and go meals for later If you've ever kept your leftovers from dinner to take with you for lunch then you've already mini meal prepped Generally though meal prepping refers to preparing 3-7 days worth of food at a time Think of it like keeping your lunches for the week all at once instead of keeping your lunch for the week You can use this same technique for breakfast lunch dinner and snacks Meal prepping doesn't waste and reduce the time to get outside unless whether the plan is diet or a budget When keeping your meal plan for the week all at once instead of keeping your lunch for the week you don't have to deal with the mess of each day's cooking Meal prepping isn't for everyone It is good for its value convenience and efficiency more than anything else With meal prepping you generally eat the same thing for a few days so if you don't like leftovers or get bored with food meal prepping isn't for you If having nutritious food that maximizes your time and budget is more valuable to you than doing something different every day meal prepping is probably seen as a meal either for yourself or maybe one other person down to a whole family Meal prepping for a whole family would be quite difficult but the result would be a meal plan that is stored in the refrigerator for a slow day in the future In addition to the way food is packed the individual nuances of your refrigerator inventory can impact the usefulness of refrigerated meals Satisfying the nutritional acceptable health and flavor will be a challenge for the eater Always begin with the refrigerator guidelines both FDA and the nutritionist's recommendations and your own preferences In general I don't think more than four days worth of food is a good idea find that better food usually lasts longer
