Inside Book Publishing Angus Phillips, Giles Clark, 2025-02-28. Now fully revised and updated for its seventh edition. Inside Book Publishing is the classic introduction to the book publishing industry. The book provides excellent overviews of the main aspects of the publishing process: commissioning authors, product development, design and production, marketing and sales. Angus Phillips and Giles Clark offer authoritative and up-to-date coverage of all sectors of the industry, from commercial fiction to educational publishing and academic journals. They reveal how publishers continue to adapt to a fast-changing and highly interconnected world in which printed books have proved resilient alongside ebooks and the growth in audio. The topics explored include AI, social media in marketing, sustainable book production, open access for research and diversity, equity and inclusion. International case studies from industry experts give perspectives on, for example, comic books, children's picture books, women in Indian publishing and the Korean literary wave. As a manual for those in the profession and a guide for the publishers of the future, this book remains a seminal work for anyone with an interest in the industry. It will also be of interest to authors seeking an insider's view of this exciting industry. The book is supported by online resources, including a glossary, a further reading list and links to a range of online resources available at www.routledge.com/9781032516554.

Proceedings of the 2022 4th International Conference on Literature, Art and Human Development (ICLAHD 2022) Bootheina Majoul, Digvijay Pandya, Lin Wang, 2023-03-14. This is an open access book. The 4th International Conference on Literature, Art and Human Development (ICLAHD 2022) was successfully held on October 28th-30th 2022 in Xi'an, China. The virtual conference ICLAHD 2022 brought together academics and experts in the field of Literature, Art and Human Development research to a common forum, promoting research and developmental activities in related fields as well as scientific information interchange between researchers, developers and engineers working all around the world. We were honored to have Assoc Prof Chew Fong Peng from University of Malaya, Malaysia to serve as our Conference Chair. The conference covered keynote speeches, oral presentations and online Q & A discussion, attracting over 300 individuals. Firstly, keynote speakers were each allocated 30-45 minutes to hold their speeches. Then, in the oral presentations, the excellent papers selected were presented by their authors in sequence.

Reading Russian Literature, 1980-2024 Otto Boele, Dorine Schellens, 2024-10-09. This edited collection focuses on the nexus between literary consumption, memory and collective identity formation in Russia from the 1980s until today. It challenges perceived notions about the reduced social significance and identity building potential of contemporary Russian literature Drawing on a diverse set of primary source materials ranging from memoirs diaries and essays to fan art and BookToks the collection seeks to do justice to the diversity of an enormous reading public that is often routinely referred to as the Russian reader The case studies explore the reading habits and self understanding of very different audiences that are dispersed along regional gender generational and technological divides In doing so this collection examines both the continuities and shifts in the multifaceted relationship between literary consumption memory and identity during the profound and ongoing transformations in Russian society and its literary landscape Price Carol Book Emily Jane Price,2014-12-15
