Wells,2005 The Impact of the European Convention on Human Rights on Russian Law Anton Burkov,2007 This book analyzes the practice of Russia honoring her legal obligations under the European Convention of Human Rights ECHR to secure to everyone within its jurisdiction the rights and freedoms defined in the Convention Article 1 of the ECHR The study comes to the conclusion that the impact of the ECHR on the Russian legal system in terms of its implementation by domestic courts is unsatisfactory The jurisprudence of the Supreme Court and Supreme Arbitration Court is an attempt to demonstrate to the Council of Europe that the ECHR is being applied rather than to implement the ECHR In contrast the jurisprudence emerging from decisions of the Russian Federation s Constitutional Court and district courts indicates a better understanding of the spirit of the ECHR Still the rare instances in which domestic courts implemented the ECHR were more often than not prompted by applicants arguments based on ECHR case law rather than by the courts The book suggests methods of ensuring a more effective implementation of the ECHR s provisions within Russian national law It develops recommendations on how to assess the Russian government s compliance with judgments of the European Court of Human Rights and how to interpret explanations submitted by Russia to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe on her implementation of the ECHR Symposium ,2007 The Information Needs of Communities Steven Waldman,2011 In 2009 a bipartisan Knight Commission found that while the broadband age is enabling an information and communications renaissance local communities in particular are being unevenly served with critical information about local issues Soon after
