benefit migrants Migration is usually seen through numbers statistics graphics and quantitative data which dehumanizes migrants With this book we aim to contribute to the knowledge of the phenomena through the lenses of a more humanistic approach to activism in digital media in the Hispanic world We propose chapters that explore the activism of migrants and civil society committed to them from a critical perspective This book intended to be read by students researchers and the public interested in migration presents interdisciplinary approaches to activist narratives art and digital It explores diverse types of migrations and related phenomena such as deportation voluntary return caravans the Cuban diaspora US childhood arrivals and the particularities of the Southern U S border These topics are analyzed in essays on race politics theater film music painting journalism multimedia digital archives social media storytelling and artificial intelligence In the abstracts you will find diverse perspectives on how digital media act as platforms that allow horizontal activism which is a direct response at the same level as the rhetoric of power Likewise the proposed essays enable us to reflect on the role of arts and media in favoring the expression of the migrant community and those who share a common feeling Still in the same way we will see how digital media if misused can also harm vulnerable communities Work by newer and established migration studies digital culture scholars and scholars from both sides of the US Mexico border and other latitudes is incorporated providing a comprehensive overview of the intersection between migration media and arts in Latin America The book will consist of an Introduction and 13 chapters divided into three sections 1 Media and Digital Media Artists Activism 2 Migrant Activists Online and 3 Activism through New Constructive Practices Editors Rubria Rocha de Luna Postdoctoral Researcher Tecnológico de Monterrey Jacob Ba uelos Capistrán Professor Tecnológico de Monterrey

Digital Exposés of Extreme-Right Shock Channels Caryn Coatney, 2026-01-22 This book takes an in depth look at journalists developing practices to expose the extreme right networks that receive many millions of views across the dark web and mainstream platforms The book draws on ideas about journalism's role as a digital guardian or a gatekeeper which can engage audiences about the need to counter viral terror content and white supremacist material This rare case study is focused on journalists reporting and news audiences related comments about the increasingly prevalent shock channels on social media Previously journalistic stories have been critiqued for sensationally promoting extreme right leaders This book shows how journalists are adapting digital techniques to start countering the extreme right's subcultures including a twisted buzz fake news sites and stylised violence that frequently targets democratic reporters Book chapters take a deep dive into the interconnected and dark web archives journalists related reporting and subscribers comments in Australia the United Kingdom and the United States It examines the ethical debates about the best professional practices for exposing the extreme right networks going forward The book finds three main elements of journalists gatekeeper roles Firstly journalists used popular video sharing platforms such as Instagram and YouTube to expose white supremacist influencers Secondly they developed long form writing styles to explain the absurd aesthetics of extreme right subcultures that have included beauty queen pageants dating sites and playlists on music streaming giants Thirdly reporters revealed how they have developed multiple and deep undercover personas to uncover dark web chatrooms and the related youth oriented events This book asserts that the successful news exposés have been characterised by an engaged focus on readers demands for journalism that demonstrates transparency trust and corrective information to enhance social cohesion This book is intended to be a useful resource to researchers scholars and students of journalism communication media and politics as well as professionals already operating within the field of journalism

Developing and Implementing a Public Health and Criminological Approach to Tackling Sexual Abuse Kieran McCartan, Anne Eason, Sarah Senker, Nick Addis, Cody Porter, 2025-08-19 This edited collection draws together and contextualises research on the Epidemiological Criminology EpiCrim approaches to sexual abuse carried out by the University of West England UWE Bristol EpiCrim sees crime and offending behaviour including sexual abuse as a public health issue and advocates that to prevent first time or repeat offending behaviour we have to work in a bespoke way across a number of populations individual interpersonal community and societal The book introduces the area of EpiCrim and how it works to address sexual abuse before examining the UWE based research on the prevention treatment and community integration of people impacted by sexual abuse The book discusses policy practice theory and research in this area with the authors reviewing critiquing synthesising as well as building upon previous current research theory and policy

Trans Cinema Laura Horak, 2026 An exciting introduction to cinema by the trans creators who are innovating filmmaking to imagine a more inclusive world Since the 1990s a largely underground upwelling of trans creativity has helped new trans identities communities and political movements come together In Trans Cinema Laura Horak provides an entryway to the wildly diverse and creative cinema made by trans creators including those who are Black Indigenous and people of color Overlooked until now this rich collection of media ranges in genre from romantic comedies to horror films and asks essential questions about how to be human and how to craft a livable life in a world on fire Using the fundamentals of film studies Horak reveals the innovative approaches taken by trans and gender nonconforming artists to explore how we relate to other people what it's like to have a body and how we survive in an oppressive society These filmmakers tackle the challenging paradox of representing trans lives when greater visibility is associated with ever increasing levels of harm In the process they produce art that emphasizes trans survival and resilience and imagines a more expansive world for trans communities
