Asianization of Migrant Workers in the Gulf Countries S. Irudaya Rajan, Ginu Zacharia Oommen, 2019-11-27 This edited volume contains sixteen chapters by eminent scholars on one of the largest migration corridors in the world i e between South and South East Asia and the Gulf region Asia s trade and cultural contact with the Gulf date back to ancient historical times Since the 1970s the economic rise of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries owing to the discovery of oil has inspired a huge influx of migrant workers from Asia At present out of roughly 15 million expatriates in the Gulf region Asians constitute around 12 million 80 percent The chapters in this book look at migration from countries like India Sri Lanka Bangladesh Pakistan Indonesia and Philippines to the different GCC countries A few chapters also focus on migration from the India state of Kerala a state where migration to the Gulf is prominent and where remittances make up over 36 percent of the state GDP Furthermore the issues covered range from labour practices and policies citizenship and state protection human rights gender and caste as well as diaspora This book explores the multifaceted nuances of the Asia Gulf migratory corridor and unearths future prospects and strategic implications The book examines remittance behaviour changing gender roles of immigrants social spatial mobility migrant policies human rights sense of belonging and identity and perception and the interaction between nationals and non nationals The book will be of interest to researchers in the areas of demography migration and gender studies as well as social science researchers policy makers human rights lawyers civil society institutions working on migration Gulf studies programmes and centres on South Asian and Middle Eastern studies

The Future of Migration to GCC Countries Françoise De Bel-Air, Nasra M. Shah, 2025-11-21 This book provides an in depth exploration of the evolving trends in South South international migration to the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC countries It presents a comprehensive analysis of migration dynamics from the perspectives of nationals non nationals policymakers and prospective migrants It highlights the multifaceted factors driving migration to the Gulf including the transition from oil dependent economies to knowledge based industries and the shift from a reliance on low wage migrant workers to the integration of highly skilled expatriates It emphasizes the Gulf states as strategic destinations for the Arab and Asian middle classes shaped by global dynamics such as the gig economy cultural compatibility and socio economic instability in migrants countries of origin Furthermore the book offers a critical assessment of migration policies focusing particularly on the inadequacies in safeguarding low paid migrants while challenging the prevailing notion that migration to the Gulf is temporary and primarily economically driven Through an examination of new employment patterns migration flows and concepts of transnationalism the book interrogates the future trajectories of Gulf societies It is an indispensable resource for scholars interested in the region s transitions and future prospects

Indian Migration to the Gulf Anisur Rahman, Sameer Babu M, Ansari PA, 2023-03-31 This book explores issues of rights issues and challenges faced by Indian migrant workers in the GCC countries It focuses on the struggle of migrants in the state of origin and destination states and how the process of migration shapes the identity and existence of migrant workers The essays in the volume focus on policy rights issues and challenges faced by migrants as well as the long term challenges posed by the COVID 19 pandemic With contributions from academics and policymakers this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of migration and diaspora studies public policy and South Asian Studies

Social Change in the Gulf Region Md Mizanur Rahman, Amr Al-Azm, 2023-03-21 This open access book comprising thirty nine chapters divided into social cultural economic and political spheres offers a unique opportunity to dive into the complex dynamic and sometimes contradictory transformation of Gulf societies in the last few decades Whilst the Gulf region has at times been seen as impervious to this natural phenomenon of transformation timeless never changing deeply rooted in its ancient tribal customs and traditions and able to blend past and present seamlessly without suffering the wrenching trauma of change this is clearly not the case and the region is not immune to the inevitable forces of social change There is no doubt today that the social change sweeping the Gulf has been profound affecting almost every aspect of life in the Gulf societies This volume has an encyclopedic value as the chapters collectively offer multifaceted and multidisciplinary perspectives to understand social change in the Gulf region Through these chapters the role of economic and educational transformation and the impact of social media migration and urbanization have in driving social change in the Gulf societies is examined in detail with a focus on their directions magnitudes and relevant policy options It also considers how COVID 19 is affecting the lives of the people in the Gulf This book bridges gaps in the understanding of the rapid pace of social change in the Gulf offering practical solutions for policy interventions It is of interest to scholars and students in Middle Eastern studies specifically as well as sociology media studies migration studies and educational policy

Public Diplomacy between Asia and the Middle East Francesca Frassinetti, Sook Jong Lee, Chiara Lovotti, 2025-11-10 This book considers how public diplomacy is employed as an instrument of statecraft by Middle Eastern and Asian governments to leverage soft power Senior mid career and junior scholars from academia and think tanks synthesise their expertise to deploy historical geopolitical and economic approaches in their analyses and observe how new practices of public diplomacy have been developed tested and applied in the two regions Building and extending on the extant scholarship which remains mostly focused on East Asia it incorporates the Middle East not only as a recipient but also as a practitioner of public diplomacy The thematic focus is underpinned by case studies of individual nation states enabling analysis of concrete examples that shed light on the evolution of Asia Middle East ties This volume is an essential reference for scholars and policymakers in the fields of international relations international political economy and area studies who seek to explore relations between these two geographical areas beyond traditional diplomacy

Planetary Specters Neel Ahuja, 2021-10-20 Neel Ahuja tracks the figure of the climate refugee in public media and policy over the past decade arguing that journalists security experts politicians and nongovernmental organizations have often oversimplified climate change and obfuscated the processes that drive mass migration To understand the systemic reasons for displacement Ahuja argues it is necessary to reframe climate disaster as interlinked with the history of capitalism and the global politics of race wherein racist presumptions about agrarian underdevelopment and Indigenous knowledge mask how financial development migration and climate adaptation policies reproduce growing inequalities Drawing on the work of Cedric Robinson and theories of racial capitalism Ahuja considers how the oil industry transformed the economic and geopolitical processes that lead to displacement From South Asia to the Persian Gulf Europe and North America Ahuja studies how Asian trade finance and labor connections have changed the nature of race borders warfare and capitalism since the 1970s Ultimately Ahuja argues that only by reckoning with how climate change emerges out of longer histories of race colonialism and capitalism can we begin to build a sustainable and just future for those most affected by environmental change

United States Political Science Documents, 1993 UNITED STATES POLITICAL SCIENCE DOCUMENTS Volume Eleven 1985 part 2 Document Descriptions, 1986 International Migration and Development in South Asia Md Mizanur Rahman, Tan Tai Yong, 2015-04-10 In migration studies the nexus between migration and development in the global South has been meticulously debated However a unanimous resolution to this debate has not been found due to the ever changing nature of international migration This book advances knowledge on the global debate on the migration development relationship by documenting experiences in a number of countries in South Asia Drawing on the experiences of global South Asians this volume documents the impact of migration on the social economic and political fields in the broader context of development It also presents a regional experience by looking into the migration development nexus in the context of South Asia and analyses the role South Asian migrants and diaspora communities play in the South Asian society Contributions from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds including sociology anthropology political science international relations and economics document the development implications of South Asian migration Broad in scope in terms of contents timeline of migration and geographical coverage the book presents empirically based case studies involving India Bangladesh Sri Lanka Pakistan and Nepal and their emigrants living and working in different parts of the world Going beyond reporting the impacts of migration on economic development by highlighting the implications of social development on society this book provides a fascinating contribution to the fields of Asian Development Migration Studies and South Asian Studies

Handbook on International Migration William J. Serow, 1990-10-24 This volume presents 19 national case studies of international migration The authors of these well written detailed but nontechnical chapters have complied with the editors request thereby yielding a number of general observations that appear to hold across these diverse countries Choice

Immigration the most difficult of all the demographic processes to document accurately has the most immediate impact on a nation's demographic structure and the essays included in this volume provide a useful overview of the immigration process as it is currently structured. In order to facilitate transnational comparisons each contributor has adhered to a common outline which includes historical setting, legal policies, types and quality of data, major international migrations, demographic effects of international migration, social and economic effects of international migration and public policy issues. The future of international migration is also assessed. The individual chapters are devoted to case studies of immigration in a variety of national settings. Included are chapters dealing with the principal receiving nations of permanent immigration: countries where immigration consists mainly of short-term imported labor; countries receiving an influx of persons from former colonial territories; countries where immigration is based on religious factors or which are destinations of refugees; and countries whose history as a colony influences current immigration and emigration patterns. Additional chapters address economically advanced countries and also focus on some of the principal sending nations of current international population flows. Offering insights into the economic consequences of migration from the perspectives of both sending and receiving nations, assessing the overall impact of immigration and detailing the contributions of immigrants, Handbook on International Migration is an important resource for public policymakers and those who must be cognizant of the economic and demographic situation of other nations.

Asian Population Studies Series, 1966 The Politics of Immigrant Workers Camille Guerin-Gonzales, Carl Strikwerda, 1993 Immigrant workers such as the Mexican undocumented worker in California or the Turkish guest worker in Germany are as crucial to the world and national economies as they are socially and politically controversial. This provocative book explores the rise of the global working class in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries by examining the experiences of a wide range of immigrant workers in the United States, Europe, Asia, and Africa.

Levels and Trends of International Migration to Selected Countries in Asia United Nations. Department of Economic and Social Affairs. Population Division, 2003 This report examines levels and trends in international migration to selected countries in Asia, focusing primarily on changes since 1970. It discusses the growth in migrant workers drawn towards the stronger economies in eastern, south-eastern, and western Asia, particularly the oil-producing countries; international migration to Israel; refugee flows in the region; as well as illustrating the complexities of contemporary population movements.

Democracy in the Balance Mehran Kamrava, 1998 Drawing on the disciplines of history, sociology, political science, and cultural anthropology, as well as an extensive bibliography of recent publications in Middle Eastern studies, Democracy in the Balance provides a comprehensive survey of the social and cultural dynamics of the Middle East while its author sounds an impassioned call for the fundamental changes that are needed if democracy is to take root and eventually thrive in the region.
