The Ashgate Research Companion To Multiculturalism:

The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism Mr Duncan Ivison, 2012-12-28 This Companion brings together a collection of new essays by leading and emerging scholars in the humanities and social sciences on some of the key issues facing multiculturalism today It offers scholars and students a clear account of the leading theories and critiques of multiculturalism that have developed over the past twenty five years and a sense of the challenges facing multiculturalism in the future

The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism Duncan Ivison, 2016-03-23 The Ashgate Research Companion to Multiculturalism brings together a collection of new essays by leading and emerging scholars in the humanities and social sciences on some of the key issues facing multiculturalism today It provides a comprehensive and cutting edge treatment of this important and hotly contested field offering scholars and students a clear account of the leading theories and critiques of multiculturalism that have developed over the past twenty five years as well as a sense of the challenges facing multiculturalism in the future Key leading scholars including James Bohman Barbara Arneil Avigail Eisenberg Ghassan Hage and Paul Patton discuss multiculturalism in different cultural and national contexts and across a range of disciplinary approaches In addition to contributions Duncan Ivison also provides a comprehensive Introduction which surveys the field and offers an extensive guide to further reading This is a key volume for anyone interested in multiculturalism and its political premise

Multicultural Politics of Recognition and Postcolonial Citizenship Rachel Busbridge, 2017-07-20 This book examines claims for recognition of cultural difference from immigrant and Indigenous minorities highlighting the ways in which they intersect with ideas of national community Busbridge argues that there is an important albeit under explored relationship between nation and multicultural politics of recognition Drawing on the Australian context the book explores how nation features as a productive if somewhat ambivalent discursive resource in contemporary Muslim and Aboriginal struggles to be recognised In demanding recognition minorities enter into the business of making the nation by positing alternative conceptions of national identity culture and belonging that are more attentive to their differences and claims This dynamic is engaged as an expression of postcolonial citizenship Postcolonial citizenship is imagined in terms of the ways in which minority groups actualise multicultural realities through rewriting ideas of national community It underlines the critical importance of revising the power relations that deem some groups more national and others less so and which in Western multicultural societies are typically tied to notions of the West and its others This book is an important conceptual theoretical and political intervention that brings postcolonialism and multiculturalism into dialogue on the increasingly potent issues of nation and national identity It will be of great interest to scholars and students of sociology politics postcolonial studies culture identity and nation

Research Handbook on Multiculturalism Geoffrey Brahm Levey, 2025-03-12 This Research Handbook presents a comprehensive assessment of multiculturalism in political theory and practice from an international perspective Geoffrey Brahm Levey brings together 30 leading experts from around the world to assess the current state of the field charting lines of inquiry for further research The Ashgate Research Companion to Cosmopolitanism Maria Rovisco, Magdalena Nowicka, 2011 The study of Cosmopolitanism has been transformed in the last 20 years and the subject itself has become highly discussed across the social sciences and the humanities The Ashgate Research Companion to Cosmopolitanism pursues distinct theoretical orientations and empirical analyses bringing together mainstream discussions with the newest thinking and developments on the main themes debates and controversies surrounding the subject The Public Life of Australian Multiculturalism Anthony Moran, 2016-11-26 This book argues that in a globalising world in which nation states have to manage population flows and intensifying cultural diversity within their borders multicultural policy and approaches have never been more important The author takes an extended case study approach examining Australia's experiments with pragmatic forms of multiculturalism and multicultural policy since the early 1970s up to the present The Public Life of Australian Multiculturalism challenges some larger assumptions about multiculturalism either that it undermines national identity or that it is and should strive to be a post national approach to identity issues Instead it argues that framing multiculturalism by inclusive national identity has been the key to multiculturalism's continuity and general success in Australia The book also directly challenges the claim that we have entered a post multicultural world making a case instead for the continuing relevance of pragmatic approaches to multiculturalism Students and scholars researching in sociology politics migration multiculturalism ethnic and racial studies nationalism and identity studies will find this study of interest Grassroots Integration in Multicultural Singapore Rebecca Grace Tan, 2025-01-24 This book studies the role that grassroots volunteers play in the integration and naturalization process in Singapore With increasing migration the topics of migrant integration and belonging are of perennial academic and public interest However much of the existing literature on the subject is largely focused on European and North American cases By focusing on the single case of Singapore this project provides a story of how a city state grapples with the issue of managing increasing cultural diversity while seeking to maintain a cohesive identity As a city Singapore has many ubiquitous features of other urban centres for migration such as a rapidly diversifying population and an economy that is heavily reliant on foreign labour At the same time being a city state means that the demographic and cultural changes experienced in Singapore also coincide with questions of national belonging and membership in the nation state in contrast to larger countries with rural urban divides or more decentralized systems of migration management and integration Examining this simultaneously typical yet unique case study means that this project is able to examine the processes where state and society have managed migration and cultural diversity at the level of the nation state For example this project discusses how Singapore's policy of multiracialism complements nation building efforts adding to existing public and academic debate about whether societies can concurrently embrace cultural difference yet maintain a cohesive national identity Muslims in the West and the Challenges of Belonging Fethi Mansouri, Vince Marotta, 2012-01-02

Sensational reporting by the media has led to attitudes that racialise Muslims and frame them as potential threats to national security placing them outside the circle of trustworthy citizenship Muslims in the West are increasingly confronted with the pressure of conforming to dominant core values and accepting mere tolerance from society or else risk exclusion and even hostility when exercising their rights to maintain diverse cultural norms and religious practices Muslims in the West and the Challenges of Belonging offers not only rigorous accounts of current difficulties but also new thinking and deeper understanding about race relations and intercultural engagement in multicultural societies It explores the increasing visibility of Muslim migrants in the West and the implications this has for multicultural co existence cultural representations belonging and inclusive citizenship Islamic Studies Series Volume 10 Muslim Active Citizenship in the West Mario Peucker, Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2014-04-03 Muslim Active Citizenship in the West investigates the emergence and nature of Muslims struggle for recognition as full members of society in Australia Great Britain and Germany What actions have been taken by Muslims to achieve equal civic standing How do socio political and socio economic factors impact on these processes And how do Muslims negotiate their place in a society that is often regarded as sceptical if not hostile towards Muslims desire to belong This book sheds new light on Muslims path towards citizenship in Australia Great Britain and Germany Existing research and statistics on Muslims socio economic status community formation claim making and political responses and the public portrayal of Islam are systematically examined These insights are tested through the eyes of Muslims based on in depth interviews with Muslim community leaders and other experts in all three countries The findings offer unique perspectives on Muslim resilience to be recognised as equal citizens of Islamic faith in very different socio political national settings Pursuing an interdisciplinary and comparative approach this book examines the country specific interplay of historical institutional political and identity dimensions of Muslims active citizenship and will be invaluable for students and researchers with an interest in Sociology Religious Studies and Political Science □□ Di Mo, 2013 Mozi fifth century B C was an important political and social thinker and formidable rival of the Confucianists He advocated universal love his most important doctrine according to which all humankind should be loved and treated as one s kinfolk honoring and making use of worthy men in government and identifying with one s superior as a means of establishing uniform moral standards He also believed in the will of Heaven and in ghosts He firmly opposed offensive warfare extravagance including indulgence in music and allied pleasures elaborate funerals and mourning fatalistic beliefs and Confucianism

Bibliographic Index ,2010 Debating Islam Samuel M. Behloul, Susanne Leuenberger, Andreas Tunger-Zanetti, 2013 Conspicuously Islam has become a key concern in most European societies with respect to issues of immigration integration identity values and inland security As the mere presence of Muslim minorities fails to explain these debates convincingly new questions need to be asked How did Islam become a topic Who takes part in the debates How do these debates influence both individual as well as collective self images and image of others Introducing Switzerland as an under researched object of study to the academic discourse on Islam in Europe this volume offers a fresh perspective on the objective by putting recent case studies from diverse national contexts into comparative perspective
