The Baghdad Declaration:

The Baghdad Declaration and Programme of Action Group of 77, United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 1983 Palestine and Israel in the 19th and 20th Centuries Elie Kedourie, Sylvia G. Haim, 2013-12-19
First Published in 1982 Middle Eastern Studies first appeared in 1964 The purpose of the Journal was the promotion of the study of the Middle East and North Africa since the end of the eighteenth century and that it aimed to take within its ambit the political economic religious and legal history of the area its literature social geography sociology and anthropology That the Journal now in its fourteenth volume has been able to conform to this programme is due to its contributors who over the years have kept it supplied with a constant and abundant flow of articles on the various subjects here enumerated This selection of articles on Palestine and Israel in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries drawn from its first thirteen volumes illustrates the great variety of subjects which authors have thought worth investigating and the diversity of approaches which they have adopted This book also shows that an appreciable part of the Journal in terms simply of volume has been devoted throughout to Palestine and Israel Executive Sessions of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 1980 British Pan-Arab Policy, 1915-1922 Isaiah Friedman, 2017-09-08
In this myth shattering study Isaiah Friedman provides a new perspective on events in the Middle East during World War I and its aftermath He shows that British officials in Cairo mistakenly assumed that the Arabs would rebel against Turkey and welcome the British as deliverers Sharif later king Hussein did rebel but not for nationalistic motives as is generally presented in historiography Early in the war he simultaneously negotiated with the British and the Turks but after discovering that the Turks intended to assassinate him finally sided with the British There was no Arab Revolt in the Fertile Crescent It was mainly the soldiers of Britain the Commonwealth and India that overthrew the Ottoman rule not the Arabs Both T E Lawrence Lawrence of Arabia and Sir Mark Sykes hoped to revive the Arab nation and build a new Middle East They courted disappointment the Arabs resented the encroachment of European Powers and longed for the return of the Turks Emir Feisal too became an exponent of Pan Arabism and a proponent of the United Syria scheme It was supported by the British Military Administration who wished thereby to eliminate the French from Syria British officers were antagonistic to Zionism as well and were responsible for the anti Jewish riots in Jerusalem in April 1920 During the twenties unlike the Hussein family and their allies the peasants fellahs who constituted the majority of the Arab population in Palestine were not inimical towards the Zionists They maintained that progress and prosperity lie in the path of brotherhood between Arabs and Jews and regarded Jewish immigration and settlement to be beneficial to the country Friedman argues that if properly handled the Arab Zionist conflict was not inevitable The responsibility lay in the hands of the British administration of Palestine U.S. Policy Toward the Persian Gulf United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, 1983 A History of the International Movement of Journalists Kaarle

Nordenstreng, Ulf Jonas Björk, Frank Beyersdorf, Sverre Høy, Epp Lauk, 2016-01-26 This study presents a general history of how journalism as an emerging profession became internationally organized over the past one hundred and twenty years seen mainly through the associations founded to promote the interests of journalists around the world Foreign Relations of the United States United States.
