Skills in Advertising Sara Paretsky Margaret Kinsman, 2016-10-03 Sara Paretsky's groundbreaking mystery series about Chicago private investigator V I Warshawski debuted in 1982 and is still going strong. She is a co-founder of Sisters in Crime, a worldwide organization supporting women writers, a sought-after public speaker, and the 2015 president of the Mystery Writers of America. This book is the first comprehensive reference work on Paretsky, providing an overview of the Warshawski novels and short stories, her other novels, a volume of collected essays, her anthologies, and journalism. Special attention is paid to the character of Warshawski, the tough street-smart detective who challenges stereotypical representations of women in crime fiction, and to the significance of the Chicago setting. A guide to the scholarly and critical debates is included, along with discussion of media adaptations and references to key websites.

Managing the Mystery Collection Judith A. Overmier, Rhonda Harris Taylor, 2014-04-23 Unravel the mystery of fostering a vibrant mystery collection for your library patrons. Whodunnit: Managing the Mystery Collection From Creation to Consumption reveals just who is responsible for providing high-quality library mystery collections to fans. This resource takes you through the complicated process from creating a mystery story to getting it to the library bookshelf, and your patrons will all have clear explanations and no plot twists. Authors, readers, critics, scholars, and librarians give you an interdisciplinary inside look at the production and collection of one of the most popular genres in literature: the mystery. This unique book comprehensively explains how a mystery story journeys a surprisingly winding way to reach an avid reading public. No red herrings here! Though acquisitions and collection development resources are provided along with effective strategies that will help librarians sift through the clues on how to bring life to their mystery collections, examinations of various subgenres of the mystery are provided, such as romance and Native American mysteries, as well as an enlightening discussion of the links between mysteries, libraries, and interest groups. Managing the Mystery Collection brings you mystery writer Barbara Fister describing the creative process, insights about Sisters in Crime, an organization that promotes mysteries authored by women, and its special relationship with libraries and librarians; a detailed introduction to buying and selling books online; Web and print resources; guidance for the acquisition of mysteries for the younger mystery reader; development of a collection of ethnic mysteries; the creation of special collections of Sherlock Holmes and author Conan Doyle; extensive listings of subgenre titles and details of popular series; an organization that networks creators, fans, and scholars of detective and mystery fiction; and more. Managing the Mystery Collection From Creation to Consumption solves the mystery behind the step-by-step process it takes to provide readers with what they want: access to a collection of perplexing, well-written mysteries. This is perfect for public and academic librarians with an interest in building quality collections of mysteries, library school faculty teaching courses in collection building, popular culture, and libraries, genre literature, and special collections, and students of those fields.

Romancing the Tomes Margaret Thornton, 2013-03-04 With contributions by scholars from the UK, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand, this provocative collection of essays explores the uneasy relationship between law and popular culture from a feminist perspective. Sisters
