Mindell, 2010-10-05 Right after Is it a boy or a girl and What's his/her name the next question people invariably ask new parents is Are you getting any sleep? Unfortunately the answer is usually Not much. In fact studies show that approximately 25% of young children experience some type of sleep problem and as any bleary eyed parent will attest it is one of the most difficult challenges of parenting. Drawing on her ten years of experience in the assessment and treatment of common sleep problems in children Dr Jodi A. Mindell now provides tips and techniques the answers to commonly asked questions and case studies and quotes from parents who have successfully solved their children's sleep problems. Unlike other books on the subject Dr Mindell also offers practical tips on bedtime rather than middle of the night sleep training and shows how all members of the family can cope with the stresses associated with teaching a child to sleep    Mother Comforts Always Ocean Ecosoft, 2025-03-02 Has society inadvertently diminished one of its most vital resources the nurturing power of mothers? Mother Comforts Always delves into the evolving role of mothers as emotional anchors within families particularly focusing on how societal shifts have impacted their ability to provide comfort and support.
