The Bad Tempered Gardener:

The Bad Tempered Gardener Anne Wareham, 2011-05-01 Seeing gardening as a serious and even outrageous art form has placed Anne Wareham well outside of what usually passes for discussion of gardens. Impatient with received ideas eager to provoke The Bad Tempered Gardener is the story of her development as a thinking gardener and the creation with her husband Charles Hawes of their acclaimed garden in the Welsh borders the Veddws. From the strange plant obsessives a bizarre debut as a television presenter to the everyday deadheading sharing a garden with frequent paeans to favourite plants and thoughtful pieces on show gardens and status this is an intelligent pugnacious and engaging book. It also unflinchingly conveys the challenges the hard work triumphs and failures behind the creation and development of a substantial contemporary garden.

Autobiography of a Garden Patterson Webster, 2022-07-04 Autobiography of a Garden follows Patterson Webster's twenty-five year journey as she transforms a beautiful but conventional country property into a 750-acre landscape that challenges what a garden is or can be. A unique personal memoir this book details how a neophyte gardener moved from copying the ideas of other people to learning from them and finally to striking out on her own. Combining traditions from French and English eighteenth-century gardens with contemporary perspectives Webster communicates concepts and ideas that underpin the garden's design sharing a process that evolved over seasons and years. She explores the meaning of creating a garden and the meaning that a garden can create linking ideas about aging and the passage of time to the reality of growth and death in the landscape and thinking through how art in a garden can reframe questions of memory and our relationship to nature. Using the history of the property as a framework Webster considers the impact made by those who lived on the land before her: the Abenaki the early settlers the cottagers the farmers the US southerners who came to Quebec to avoid the summer heat and the northerners who defeated them in the Civil War. With engaging personal anecdotes she describes the thinking behind each part of the garden and the examples that guided her the mishaps and successes she encountered and her plans for the future. Beautifully photographed and full of inspirational ways of thinking about gardens and gardening Autobiography of a Garden blends history horticulture and art encouraging readers to make their own surroundings more beautiful and more meaningful.
