Religious Festive Practices in Boston's North End Augusto Ferraiuolo,2012-11-14 In this lively and accessible book Augusto Ferraiuolo examines the many religious festivals in the Italian American community of Boston s North End Using interviews participant observation and visual data Ferraiuolo creates a vivid picture of how over the course of a summer season a number of religious festive practices are organized by multiple overlapping and to some extent competing voluntary organizations The central argument that emerges is that the community uses these festivals in part to help maintain and establish a variety of identities and that these identities are multistranded complex shifting and negotiated and thus ephemeral In addition Ferraiuolo shows in detail how individuals negotiate and construct identities as Italian Americans Scaccianesi Neapolitans Catholics and others within the context of these celebrations He also introduces a creative and original metaphor for understanding the ways in which selfhood is constructed arguing that contemporary identities function as hypertext in the manner of web based technologies linking to one another and building upon each other as constantly evolving technologies of the self

The Sanitarian ,1899 Muslims and Others in Early Islamic Society

Robert Hoyland,2021-03-24 The interaction between Muslims and the other religious denominations of the Middle East in the period 620-1020 is the subject of this volume. This is arguably the single most important issue in the history of the early Islamic Middle East since the Muslims were initially a minority in the lands that they had conquered and so had to reach some modus vivendi with the various religious communities in their realm. Fifteen articles by leading scholars shed light on this process from a number of different perspectives historical, conceptual, legal, social and theological. An introduction both gives an overview and examines possibilities for future research. The period under study is demarcated at one end by the Prophet Muhammed d. 632 who as the Qur'an tells us had to deal with Jews, Christians and polytheists. At the other end lies the great legal political thinker Ma'ardi d. ca. 1020 by whose time the Middle East had become substantially Islamicised.

Concepts and Ideas at the Dawn of Islam M.J. Kister, 2022-02-23 This book deals with the history of pre-Islamic Arab society and the emergence of Islam as reflected in hadith, adab, historical, genealogical and exegetical literature. Among the themes discussed are the ethnic composition of the population of Mecca, the evolving relationship between the nascent state in Medina and Muslim religious ideas as well as some aspects of early Muslim expansion. Other articles deal with Jahili tribal groups and their contribution to emerging Islam. An extensive article is devoted to Adam as a great herald and predecessor of Muhammad. Sanitarian, 1899 The Believer, 2009 Works of Martin Luther: Introduction, Translator's note, Luther's prefaces, Disputation on indulgences \(1517\), Treatise on baptism \(1519\), Discussion of confession \(1520\), The Fourteen of consolation \(1520\), Treatise on good works \(1520\), Treatise on the New Testament \(1520\), The papacy at Rome \(1520\), Index Martin Luther, 1915 American Farriers' Journal Henry Heymering, 2004-07 Includes American Farrier's Association newsletter God's Special Agents John B.
