The Beautiful Things That Heaven Bears:

The Beautiful Things That Heaven Bears Dinaw Mengestu, 2007-03-01 Seventeen years ago Sepha Stephanos fled the Ethiopian Revolution for a new start in the United States. Now he finds himself running a failing grocery store in a poor African American section of Washington D C, his only companions two fellow African immigrants who share his bitter nostalgia and longing for his home continent. Years ago and worlds away, Sepha could never have imagined a life of such isolation. As his environment begins to change, hope comes in the form of a friendship with new neighbors Judith and Naomi, a white woman and her biracial daughter. But when a series of racial incidents disturbs the community, Sepha may lose everything all over again. Watch a QuickTime interview with Dinaw Mengestu about this book.

The American Dream and Dreams Deferred Carlton D. Floyd, Thomas Ehrlich Reifer, 2022-11-14 The American Dream and Dreams Deferred: A Dialectical Fairy Tale shows how rival interpretations of the Dream reveal the dialectical tensions therein. Exploring often neglected voices, literatures, and histories, Carlton D. Floyd and Thomas Ehrlich Reifer highlight moments when the American Dream appears both simultaneously possible and out of reach. In so doing, the authors invite readers to make a new collective dream of a better future on socially just, multicultural, and ecologically sustainable foundations.

African Migration and the Novel Jack Taylor, 2024 Explores pressing social and political issues such as racial identity, environmental devastation, human trafficking, and political violence through the lens of novels of African migration. The book details how authors such as Chika Unigwe, Chris Abani, Dinaw Mengestu, In Koli Jean Bofane, Boubacar Boris Diop, and others develop the migratory imagination, the creative means mobilized within their novels to expose the reader to contemporary social issues. Drawing on and synthesizing a multitude of theoretical frameworks including ecocriticism, postcolonial theory, genre studies, Black studies, paratextual reading, and political economy, the book argues for the flexibility of the migration novel as a genre.

How to Read the Air Dinaw Mengestu, 2010-10-14 A beautifully written New York Times Book Review novel of redemption by a prize-winning international literary star. From the acclaimed author of The Beautiful Things That Heaven Bears comes a heartbreaking literary masterwork about love, family, and the power of imagination. Following the death of his father, Yosef Jonas Woldemariam feels compelled to make sense of the volatile generational and cultural ties that have forged him. Leaving behind his marriage and job in New York, he sets out to retrace his mother and father's honeymoon as young Ethiopian immigrants and weave together a family history that will take him from the war-torn country of his parents' youth to a brighter vision of his life in America today. In so doing, he crafts a story, real or invented, that holds the possibility of reconciliation and redemption.
