GARY., 2013 The Dancing Wu Li Masters Gary Zukav, 1984 The Dancing Wu Li Masters Gary Zukav, 1980 The Dancing Wu Li Masters Gary Zukav, 1978 System Design Modeling and Metamodeling John P. van Gigch, 2013-06-29 This book is a venture in the worlds of modeling and of metamodeling At this point I will not reveal to readers what constitutes metamodeling Suffice it to say that the pitfalls and shortcomings of modeling can be cured only if we resort to a higher level of inquiry called metainquiry and metadesign We reach this level by the process of abstraction The book contains five chapters from my previous work Applied General Systems Theory Harper and Row London and New York First Edition 1974 Second Edition 1978 More than ten years after its publication this material still appears relevant to the main thrust of system design This book is dedicated to all those who are involved in changing the world for the better In a way we all are involved in system design from the city manager who struggles with the problems of mass transportation or the consolidation of a city and its suburbs to the social worker who tries to provide benefits to the urban poor It includes the engineer who designs the shuttle rockets It involves the politician engaged in drafting a bill to recycle containers or one to prevent pesticide contamination of our food The politician might even need system design to chart his or her own re-election campaign

Pitirim A. Sorokin Barry V. Johnston, 1995 Pitirim A. Sorokin 1889-1968 was one of the most original important and controversial figures in American sociology His spectacular rise from a peasant childhood in Czarist Russia to the Olympian heights of Harvard University provides an unlikely and fascinating lens for examining the history of an entire discipline And as Barry Johnston shows his equally dramatic fall from favor and unexpected resurrection illuminate both Sorokin's life and the tempestuous world of academic politics An outspoken revolutionary and secretary to Alexander Kerensky Sorokin was imprisoned and ordered executed by Lenin then reprieved and exiled During the 1920s he flourished as a teacher and scholar at the University of Minnesota where he published several pioneering books on the Russian Revolution social mobility sociological theory and rural sociology Harvard president A. Lawrence Lowell was so impressed that he recruited Sorokin to chair the university's first department of sociology From 1930 to 1944 the department prospered under Sorokin's leadership attracting an entire generation of young scholars who in their own right would have a profound impact on the discipline In this period Sorokin published several volumes of his magnum opus Social and Cultural Dynamics and became embroiled in a bitter battle with rival Talcott Parsons for control of the department Parsons ultimately deposed Sorokin and transformed sociology into the Department of Social Relations Sorokin nevertheless stayed on at Harvard where he established the Center for Creative Altruism but otherwise continued to work in relative obscurity Finally in 1963 after years in eclipse Sorokin was recognized for his accomplishments when he was elected president of the American Sociological Association During a long and distinguished career Sorokin amassed an amazingly diverse and substantial body of work much of which set the standard for the field At the same time he broke with the conventions of sociology frequently ridiculing and taunting his less adventurous colleagues For his heresy the flamboyant Sorokin was condemned and driven to the periphery of a profession anxious for legitimacy as a science As a result Sorokin's ideas have been consistently ignored and misunderstood for more than a quarter century Based on exhaustive research in Sorokin's papers and the Harvard archives as well as interviews with Sorokin's surviving family members former students and colleagues this biography restores Sorokin to his rightful place in the pantheon of American intellectuals

Gaj Robert Sean Lewis (aka Rafiq), 2004-10-30 Do our metaphors for God serve us or do we serve the metaphors What are the consequences of our monotheistic idea that God is separate from creation rather than a subatomically and consciously unified life force Gaj The End of Religion offers a concise survey of our ideas about God from 600 BC to the present in the service of a single compelling argument God is not an individual but the very substance of the universe The implications of this idea for our personal and global worldviews are explored in the context of religion philosophy quantum physics self knowledge and selfhood notions of good and evil and the current intertwining of church and state in both North America and the Middle East A great little book to help us think and imagine beyond the spiritual boxes of our time Rev Dr Robert L Jackson United Church of Canada Purchase at <http://www.amazon.ca/Gaj-The-Religion-Robert-Lewis-dp-0973656107> Books of the Times ,1978     The New York Times Book Review ,1982     Eudora Welty Barbara Harrell Carson,1992 This work is based on and examines the premise that the vision of reality projected in Welty s writing is of a holistic rather than a dualistic nature Selected by CHOICE as an Outstanding Academic Book in 1992     Lead From The Heart Mark C. Crowley,2022-08-23 Leadership and engagement expert Mark C Crowley shows how trading in the old business playbook for heart led leadership strategies will create purpose driven dedicated employees and higher levels of performance Revised and updated to address the needs of those managing Gen Z and millennial employees in addition to the latest global research on employee engagement In this thoroughly revised and updated edition of his now classic book visionary Mark C Crowley provides the roadmap workplace leaders the world over are seeking How to most successfully and sustainably inspire and manage other human beings in the post pandemic era Nearly 50 million workers quit their jobs in the U S alone in 2021 a record number likely to be exceeded in 2022 While we might imagine that an opportunity to earn greater pay is the key driver of this Great Resignation research shows two thirds of the reasons people leave jobs boil down to issues related to their engagement and overall well being More specifically people quit when they feel they aren t valued respected appreciated coached or cared about personally by their manager and organization Thanks in large part to the COVID pandemic and a global reset of what matters most to people in their lives human beings have profoundly evolved in what they need and want in exchange for their work Consequently a radical change in employee expectations demands that organizations and managers rapidly pivot by embracing leadership practices that match the moment The remedy to the Great Resignation is to adopt more humane ways of managing people knowing they inherently lead to infinitely greater engagement not to mention optimal employee performance In this new and updated version of his seminal and visionary book Mark C Crowley draws upon emerging medical and other scientific discoveries which prove it s the heart not the mind that drives human motivation and achievement While we ve long been led to believe that human beings are essentially rational beings new research shows that feelings and emotions far more often motivate human behavior and what people care about most and commit themselves to in their lives In light of this breakthrough understanding it s become incumbent upon workplace managers to pay great attention to their employees emotional experience at work far greater attention than any of us ever believed necessary Ironically most of us were told the heart has no place in workplace management In fact most of us were taught that the heart acts like Kryptonite in leadership it inherently undermines a manager s effectiveness and lowers performance What makes this book so remarkable is that it brilliantly contradicts all those traditional beliefs and proves why people naturally and instinctively respond to managers who care about them personally and support their deep human needs To be absolutely clear there s nothing soft or weak about the Lead From The Heart philosophy Instead it represents the future of workplace management and a roadmap to driving uncommon engagement productivity and profitability when organizations around the world are wanting it most Rich with inspiring stories and illuminating research this book proves that when you lead people with a greater balance of mind and heart people naturally follow And they also excel Michigan Law Review ,1997 Moving Heaven and Earth Lucy Goodison,1992 Goodison challenges the dualistic mind body and spirit matter splits that determine and limit the Western worldview pointing the way to political responsibility based on spiritual awareness She offers practical exercises for use by individuals and groups to deconstruct and reconstruct their symbol systems which link individual to social life AIR UNIVERSITY review NOVEMBER-DECEMBER 1985 ,1985 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1991 The Nobel Prize Winners Frank Northen Magill,1989 Wholeness Alex Gerber,2001
