Henri Cartier-Bresson: Aperture Masters of Photography, 2015 Aperture is pleased to present the elegantly updated and refreshed Henri Cartier Bresson edition of the Aperture Masters of Photography Series. With an introduction by notable curator Clément Chéroux this edition includes new image by image commentary and a chronology of this influential and iconic artist's life. Initially presented as the History of Photography Series in 1976 the first volume of the Masters of Photography Series featured Cartier Bresson and was edited by legendary French publisher Robert Delpire who cofounded the series with Aperture's own Michael Hoffman. In this redesigned and expanded version of the classic Aperture book we have kept the majority of the selection of images from the original series which Cartier Bresson himself created with Delpire encapsulating the spontaneity and intuition for which this legendary photographer is so celebrated    The Decisive Moment, 1952 Strictly speaking The Decisive Moment is a monograph of Cartier Bresson's best work but it has overriding unifying factors that elevate it into a great photobook. The first is the concept of the decisive moment itself which defines the elegance of Cartier Bresson's imagery the instant when all the elements in the picture frame come together to make the perfect image not the peak of action necessarily but the formal peak. No one achieved it more often or better but allied with it was Cartier Bresson's thoroughly clear eyed view of the world astute non sentimental beautiful profound. Crucially for all their formal grace his pictures are distinguished by his humanist view of life. The Photobook A History Volume I Martin Parr and Gerry Badger London Phaidon 2004    Henri Cartier-Bresson. by Clément Chéroux Clément Chéroux, 2008 Henri Cartier Bresson's photography came to define the 20th century.
