The Detective As Historian Vol :

Investigating Crime in a Time of War Thomas W. Kniesche,2025-04-12 This book takes a close look at crime fiction set in the interwar period and during the reign of terror of the Nazi regime Kniesche analyzes historical crime fiction depicting Weimar and Nazi Germany with specific questions in mind what does the text try to accomplish in regard to transmitting historical knowledge What history is told How is historical knowledge represented and conveyed in crime fiction Does the historical background provide an indispensable setting for the crime story With consideration to the degree of self reflexivity in the texts Kniesche probes how open the text is to an active participation of the reader in evaluating the historical knowledge that the text itself attempts to provide

Individual studies The Detective as Historian Ray Browne,Lawrence Kreiser,2009-03-26 Deeper understanding of history is enhanced by encasing it in art and interest Crime fiction is one of the widest and most rapidly growing forms of literature

Historical crime fiction serves effectively the double purpose of entertaining while it teaches The truth of the narrative account the editors of this volume believe is dependent on the understanding of human nature reflected in the author who writes the narrative Historical crime fiction the editors of this volume write has an obligation and a golden opportunity It must bring the past up to the present through the device of timeless crime and it must take the reader into the world about which is being written so that the characters are alive and the events interesting and challenging Professional writers of fiction need to be more effective than mere authors of dates and assumed motivations Therefore they can fill in human motivations and drives where no records exist and can aid the professional historians in what historian David Thelen calls the challenge of history which is to recover the past and interpret it for the present The essays in this volume accept the challenge and make major accomplishments for meeting it
