The Dialogue Comes Of Age Christian Encounters With Other Traditions:

The Dialogue Comes of Age John B. Cobb, Ward McAfee, 2010 Increasingly world religious traditions present a source of religious practices and even live religious options How are Christians to relate to these traditions and the neighbors and friends who live by them This lively and engaging book is a great resource for faithful wrestling with the new realities Led by theologian John B Cobb Jr and historian Ward M McAfee the Progressive Christians Uniting has distilled the historical and existential import of both Abrahamic and other traditions and stressed the differences among traditions and the richness they can afford Christian self understanding Includes study materials A Companion to Comparative Theology, 2022-08-22 A Companion to Comparative Theology offers a unique survey of a rapidly developing field of modern theology in 32 chapters coordinated by five editors Its first part discusses some of the main historical developments in theology and religious studies before 1985 that are relevant for understanding contemporary approaches in comparative theology The main part of the companion traces developments in five specific areas of comparative research starting with classical approaches by Christian comparative theologians and continuing with responses by scholars from Jewish Islamic Hindu Buddhist and Chinese religious comparative perspectives The final part of the companion highlights a number of new avenues in comparative theology discussing new methods new forms of awareness new partnerships with other fields of study and finally some preliminary conclusions Contributors are Nadeen Mustafa A Alsulaimi Mar a Enid Barga Bede Benjamin Bidlack Andr van der Braak Francis X Clooney Catherine Cornille Jonathan Edelmann Marianne Farina James L Fredericks Rouyan Gu Paul Hedges Holly Hilgardner Daniel Joslyn Siemiatkoski Louis Komjathy Christian S Krokus LAI Pan chiu Kristin Johnston Largen John Makransky Jerry L Martin Vahid Mahdavi Mehr Marianne Moyaert Emmanuel Nathan Robert Cummings Neville Hugh Nicholson Jerusha Tanner Rhodes Devorah Schoenfeld Klaus von Stosch Axel Marc Oaks Takacs Pim Valkenberg Maureen L Walsh Kijin James Wu Passing Over and Returning Paul O. Ingram, 2013-10-23 In Passing Over and Returning Paul O Ingram describes his particular dialogue with the world s religions illustrated by his experience of passing over into Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and Confucianism Judaism and Islam and by his return to his home as a Lutheran Christian While religious diversity is not new neither are the questions posed by religious diversity What is new is that more and more people are actively engaged with the world s religions because more and more people are willing to be informed by insights found in religious traditions other than their own This is particularly true among progressive Christians But openness does not necessarily mean rejecting one s own tradition even though persons sometimes convert to another tradition or combine their original religious identity with the identity of another tradition Whether one returns to the home of one s own faith tradition after passing over or assumes a dual religious identity or converts to another tradition all persons engaged in interreligious dialogue undergo processes of creative transformation Jesus Christ for Contemporary Life Don Schweitzer, 2012-02-13 Jesus Christ for Contemporary Life is an understanding of Jesus as the Word of God grounded in what can be known historically of Jesus and informed by subsequent reflection upon him which hopes to help shape a Christian identity characterized by bounded openness In Jesus Christ for Contemporary Life Don Schweitzer explores the significance of the person work and relationships of Jesus Christ for contemporary life He moves from the historical Jesus to the present in three parts In the first part Schweitzer develops an understanding of Jesus as the Word of God who became incarnate to give the goodness and beauty of God further expression in time and space Second he explores how various atonement theories articulate ways in which Jesus empowers people to further express this beauty and goodness in their own lives And finally Schweitzer explores how Jesus relates to people in the church to the events and movements in history to other religions and to Christians in their dialogue with God in prayer

Understanding Religious Pluralism Peter C.

Phan,Jonathan Ray,2014-08-01 Our contemporary world is fast becoming religiously diverse in a variety of ways Thanks to globalization and migration to mention only two current worldwide trends people of diverse and sometimes mutually hostile faiths are now sharing neighborhoods and encountering one another s religious traditions on a daily basis For scholars in religious studies and theology the issue to be examined is whether religious diversity is merely the result of historical development and social interaction or whether it is inherent in the object of belief part of the very structure of faith and our attempts to understand and express it The essays in this volume range from explorations of the impact of religious diversity on religious studies to examples of interfaith encounter and dialogue and current debates on Christian theology of religion These essays examine not only the theoretical issues posed by religious pluralism to the study of religion and Christian theology but also concrete cases in which religious pluralism has been a bone of contention Together they open up new vistas for further conversation on the nature and development of religious pluralism

The Intersection of Sacredness and Archaeology Donna L. Gillette,Thomas L. Sanders,2024-10-01 At the point of the often contentious intersection of sacred site preservation and resource development archaeology has a unique and valuable role Archaeology has been criticized as a destroyer of sacred sites through the unbridled pursuit of knowledge through excavation or aiding unbridled development by failing to identify sacred sites However archaeology can act as a mitigator between the conflicting goals of preservation and development while giving the indigenous a voice At the heart of this mitigation is understanding the sacred how it might be physically manifested how those of diverse cultures understand it and how it is effected by the laws and norms of diverse cultures The purpose of this book is to enhance the discussion surrounding contemporary human interaction with our natural and cultural landscape Its first goal is make this discussion more productive and less contentious by presenting and thus recognizing the cultural ways of knowing and perspectives of indigenous people Its second goal is to foster the preservation of our scared landscape As more and more of our physical landscape is being altered worldwide through rapid growth and development the cultural landscape is also being changed and challenged These changes often reflect the interests of some members of society while the interests of others including those of Native and Indigenous communities and many archaeologists environmentalists and others who understand the importance of knowing the past are disregarded The latter group is dedicated toward preserving special places and continuing to provide for Native people the ability to celebrate their traditions and focusing on defining the sacred landscape
