The Dialogue of the Seraphic Virgin, Catherine of Siena Saint Catherine (of Siena), 1907 The Dialogue of the Seraphic Virgin St. Catherine of Siena, Algar Thorold, 2014-04 THE DIALOGUE OF ST CATHERINE OF SIENAA TREATISE OF DIVINE PROVIDENCE How a soul elevated by desire of the honor of God and of the salvation of her neighbors exercising herself in humble prayer after she had seen the union of the soul through love with God asked of God four requests The soul who is lifted by a very great and yearning desire for the honor of God and the salvation of souls begins by exercising herself for a certain space of time in the ordinary virtues remaining in the cell of self knowledge in order to know better the goodness of God towards her This she does because knowledge must precede love and only when she has attained love can she strive to follow and to clothe herself with the truth But in no way does the creature receive such a taste of the truth or so brilliant a light therefrom as by means of humble and continuous prayer founded on knowledge of herself and of God because prayer exercising her in the above way unites with God the soul that follows the footprints of Christ Crucified and thus by desire and affection and union of love makes her another Himself Christ would seem to have meant this when He said To him who will love Me and will observe My commandment will I manifest Myself and he shall be one thing with Me and I with him In several places we find similar words by which we can see that it is indeed through the effect of love that the soul becomes another Himself That this may be seen more clearly I will mention what I remember having heard from a handmaid of God namely that when she was lifted up in prayer with great elevation of mind God was not wont to conceal from the eye of her intellect the love which He had for His servants but rather to manifest it and that among other things He used to say Open the eye of your intellect and gaze into Me and you shall see the beauty of My rational creature And look at those creatures who among the beauties which I have given to the soul creating her in My image and similitude are clothed with the nuptial garment that is the garment of love adorned with many virtues by which they are united with Me through love And yet I tell you if you should ask Me who these are I should reply said the sweet and amorous Word of God they are another Myself inasmuch as they have lost and denied their own will and are clothed with Mine are united to Mine are conformed to Mine It is therefore true indeed that the soul unites herself with God by the affection of love So that soul wishing to know and follow the truth more manfully and lifting her desires first for herself for she considered that a soul could not be of use whether in doctrine example or prayer to her neighbor if she did not first profit herself that is if she did not acquire virtue in herself addressed four requests to the Supreme and Eternal Father The first was for herself the second for the reformation of the Holy Church the third a general prayer for the whole world and in particular for the peace of Christians who rebel with much lewdness and persecution against the Holy Church in the fourth and last she besought the Divine Providence to provide for things in general and in particular for a certain case with which she was concerned

The Dialogue of the Seraphic Virgin Catherine of Siena Saint Catherine of Siena, Aeterna Press, 1896 I am persuaded said Claude Bernard that the day will come when the man of science the philosopher and the poet will all understand each other Whatever we may think of this prophecy we most of us feel that the one sided absolutism of the past whether religious or scientific is no longer possible The inevitable vehemence of the reaction against bigotry and superstition has in a measure spent itself and the best minds of the present influenced by the spirit of Socrates claim to wisdom are cautiously and tentatively feeling their way to a nicer adjustment of the scales of thought Aeterna Press

The Dialogue of the Seraphic Virgin Catherine of Siena St. Catherine of Siena, 2011-06-24 The future welfare of both Church and state depends chiefly on the manner in which the rising generation is brought up for if all parents were to give their children a good religious training the future prosperity of both Church and state would be assured because a good religious training will make children good Christians and as experience proves good Christians are always good citizens In our Popular Instructions on Marriage we have briefly outlined the duties of parents in the bringing up of their children In this little work we enter more fully into details and clearly point out almost step by step the manner in which Christian parents should bring up their children from birth to the time when they embrace that state of life for which God has destined them may this little book prove useful in directing and assisting parents in the proper performance of the noble but difficult task of making their children exemplary Christians and virtuous citizens
